To Our Valued Customers,

Over the last few weeks, COVID-19, also known as the coronavirus, has become a global topic of concern. Riley and Sons Moving has been closely monitoring the situation. We continue to evaluate the information supplied by the CDC, WHO, AMSA, DOT, and the public health officials in the communities in which we do business, and follow the recommendations provided by those organizations concerning public health and safety. Riley and Sons main concern is the safety and well-being of our employees and customers.

We will work closely with our clients to mitigate the risks associated with the outbreak and will continue to follow industry guidelines and safe practices in interacting with the public and the handling of our customers' belongings, ensuring that the necessary steps and precautions are taken.

Riley and Sons Moving continues to approach this situation with an abundance of caution and concern for the communities in which we serve.

Additional information for moving during this time can be found at: <https://www.moving.com/tips/moving-during-coronavirus-epidemic-heres-what-you-need-to-know/>

We hope everyone stays safe and healthy!
