The International Consortium Of Caribbean Professionals

ORGANIZATION AND MISSION

(ICCP) (The Consortium), is a not-for-profit organization with representation in the Caribbean and Latin America, North America, Africa, Asia and Europe. The Consortium is a membership organization of professionals and organizations. Our broad-based membership enables us to provide high quality services and support for a broad range of human service, business development, advisory and other initiatives and projects.

ICCP's mission is to mobilize and bring together Caribbean Professionals across national and regional boundaries to share information, knowledge, resources and expertise through collaboration, partnerships, and individual initiatives for the mutual benefit of its membership and the Caribbean peoples and nations.

The Consortium seeks to accomplish its mission by consensus on those practical solutions to the professional and regional challenges that we face everyday.

ICCP maintains and regularly updates a computerized database of Caribbean professionals and organizations. This database facilitates the opportunity to harness and deploy individual and organizational resources - expertise, skills, information and knowledge - for the professional development of its members, the improvement and sustainability of organizations and the general development of the Caribbean Region.

ICCP's Divisions are defined by its various interest groups. The Divisions serve the needs of members involved in specific areas and applications. They reflect the scope and depth of ICCP's leadership and commitment in professional and regional issues.

The Caribbean

Our current Divisions are:

- Education & Training
- Medicine & Health
- Family, Youth & Community Development
- Science & Technology
- Human Resource Development & Leadership
- Energy and the Environment
- Government & Politics
- Religion
- Finance & Investment
- Tourism, Music, Art and Culture
- Legal

While each of the Divisions is unique in the benefits provided, all offer networking opportunities and volunteer and internship possibilities. Some Divisions also offer newsletters, conferences and seminars/training.

The Consortium sponsors several cutting-edge conferences and forums. Members have the opportunity to network with other professionals while in a learning environment. Conferences are sometimes co-sponsored with colleges and universities, professional organizations and other interest groups. ICCP continues to invite its membership for topics and suggestions for conference and forum events.

ICCP's collective expertise is employed to provide technical assistance to Governments, colleges and universities, and local and international institutions and organizations. Projects span the range of expertise at ICCP.

Being a member of the International Consortium of Caribbean Professionals (ICCP) connects you with a community of hundreds of individuals and organizations worldwide. Membership is open to all Caribbean nationals, descendants of Caribbean nationals, and all those interested in serving the interests of Caribbean peoples and the region. Whether you own a business, work for a large or a small organization, are an expert or a beginner, membership is a unique opportunity to meet and learn from others who share your interests.

North & Latin America

Benefits include:

Networking:

Opportunities to meet and benefit from the experience and expertise of other professionals and the linkages formed with organizations and institutions. Experience the benefits of being part of resource sharing and gathering.

Information:

Opportunities to stay up-to-date of the latest in professional and individual development and relevant development of the Caribbean Region.

Education:

Opportunities to learn of opportunities to enhance your personal and individual work, and organizational performance.

Technical Assistance:

Opportunities to consult on local, international and regional projects. Increase your marketability as a professional. Member organizations of the Consortium share the unique opportunities to grow their organizations and benefit from preferred rates for technical assistance.

DIASPORA Connection:

Our quarterly newsletter is sent to all members and features practical advice, special reports on the region, business opportunities, and updates on new practices in a variety of disciplines. Keep informed of conference schedules, workshops and discussion forums. Submit and suggest articles that would be of interest to the membership.

Professional Help Desk:

One of the Consortium's most unique features, the Help Desk, is valuable to the membership in helping members advance their careers and business opportunities. Members are connected to the expertise of the Consortium to answer technical questions, get advice on individual projects and brainstorm new approaches.

Training, Workshops and Conferences:

As a member, you can enjoy special rates on all ICCP-sponsored training, workshops and conferences. Members are also solicited to contribute ideas, participate in the planning, and conduct training.
