

Mark Daniel Panetta

(October 3, 1957 - March 27, 2013)

Mark Daniel Panetta, 55, of Sebewaing, died Wednesday, March 27, 2013 at the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mark was born October 3, 1957 in Detroit to the late Felix and Jeannette Panetta. He graduated from Walled Lake Central High School in 1975. On February 12, 1983 he and Deborah Ziska were married in Texas. They moved to Huron County in 1997.

Mark was employed as an auto parts salesman, which worked well with his interest in old cars. He loved music, especially singing and playing guitar. He enjoyed spending time with friends and family, his pets, playing cards and he was always up for a good argument, which was usually sure to include the line "I've forgotten more than you'll ever know."

He is survived by his wife Deborah; children Bill (Hollie) Myers of Sebewaing, Robin (David) Carabine of Sebewaing and Jessica ("Red") Stump of Bay Port; and grandchildren Kaden, Madeline, Drake, Andrew, Fintin and Angel.

As a final act of generosity, Mark's body was donated to scientific research, so that others may benefit.
