Holy Communion
at Home

April 9, 2020

Today is Maundy Thursday, the day when we remember the Last Supper that Jesus shared with his disciples. During that meal, he created the Sacrament of Holy Communion which we still observe today as a way to connect with the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in our lives.

Many have been asking how you can celebrate communion in this time of social distancing. Check out this invitation and resources below:

We invite you to gather with your family and housemates this evening to celebrate home communion. If you can, do this at 7pm, and we will all be joined together at the same time. (If not, celebrate communion when you can while using the resources below.)

Here is a link to a liturgy and instructions for celebrating home communion. Consider downloading this resource and prepare your family to gather around the table. Choose one of your housemates to be the leader and share the Lord's Supper.

Here is a link to a video of Pastor Brad celebrating home communion with his family, which you can watch and join if you wish. Have your own wine/juice and bread available to share communion with one another. Again, choose one housemate to be the leader. Remember that we are all One Body in Christ.

Now may the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you, and keep you in God's grace. Amen.
