

Alphabetic Sentences

These are sentences that contain all the letters of the alphabet, useful for practicing penmanship, keyboarding, or calligraphy. They also present a challenge for children to create their own. I don't know where I got them, but I like their quaint language. Thanks to whoever collected or wrote them!

Back in my quaint garden, jaunty zinnias vie with flaunting phlox.

Breezily jingling $3,416,857, 209 a wise advertiser ambles to the bank, his exchequer amplified.

Verbatim reports were quickly given by Jim Fox to his amazed audience.

Jay visited back home and gazed upon a brown fox and quail.

Six crazy kings vowed to abolish my quite pitiful jousts.

May Jo equal the fine record by solving six puzzles a week?

Wes quickly gave Bert handsome prizes for six juicy plums.

Just keep examining every low bid quoted for zinc etchings.

Freight to me sixty dozen quart jars and twelve black pans.

We have just quoted on nine dozen boxes of gray lamp wicks.

Fred specialized in the job of making very quaint wax toys.

Astronaut Quincy B. Zack defies gravity with six jet fuel pumps.

My friendly help squeezed back in again and joined the many weavers after six.

William Jex quickly caught five dozen brown pelicans.

Jack amazed a few girls by dropping the antique onyx vase!

A quick movement of the enemy will jeopardize six gunboats.

Jeb quickly drove a few extra miles on the glazed pavement.

Pack my box with five dozen jugs of liquid veneer.

Five big quacking zephyrs jolted my wax bed.

The quick brown fox jumped viciously through my garden zone.

