Exalted Ruler Message

Wow! This year is flying by. Summer is here already. I am at Grand Lodge Convention in Tampa, Florida and the new Grand Exalted Ruler is T. Keith Mills and his theme for 2021-2022 is Meeting the Challenge. He is asking all lodges to meet the challenge in improving membership, promoting Elkdom throughout our communities with all our different programs. Be committed to keeping up with all the changes and move our order forward with the times. The Convention has been full of emotion trying to get the Order of Elkdom lodges back from the pandemic and back to vibrant and social lodges helping the communities wherever it is needed. I am asking all members and officers to Meet the Challenge by bringing in a new member this year. To volunteer for a committee or event with the Lodge or with a community in our area to improve and strengthen our Lodge and our communities. They have also added some break out sessions that are very helpful to the Lodge officers.

I hope everyone had a wonderful July 4th holiday and spent some quality time with family and friends and had the time to come down and enjoy our 4th of July picnic on the pavilion with your fellow members and officers.

The next event will be our Lodge picnic on August 1st on the pavilion. See the Elks Tale for time and details.

The Lodge officers will be competing in a simulation of the state ritual contest for the assistance of the judges in scoring competition, and to assist the ritual teams with competing and critiquing officers skills by ritual judges. The practice will take place on August 7th at the Lakewood Lodge. We do not have a time when our team will be on the floor competing.

I want thank all the members and officers who have helped so far this year as we try to return to some type of normalcy from this pandemic. I did survive Hurricane Elsa and will see you at the Lodge.

Elks Care, Elks Share
Exalted Ruler Terry Ingalls
