Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages. T-Mobile® is not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

Frequently asked questions:

What sort of messages can we send you?

As your healthcare provider, our goal is to stay in touch with you even when you're not in their office. To keep the lines of communication open and based on need, we can send you messages via voice SMS/text, email and secure messages on the Patient Portal and using healow. Example of communication from our practice can include: appointment reminders, prescription refill messages and health/wellness notifications for tests or other procedures. We respect your need for privacy and will not send you telemarketing related messages or share your contact details with anyone.

What does it mean when you opt-in or activate?

By choosing to opt-in for voice and or text messages from us, your healthcare provider office, you are consenting to receive phone, text and/or other electronic messages to the number we have on file for you. We have chosen to use this automated service reminders offered by healow and eClinicalWorks. Please direct all your communication directly with us, your healthcare provider office and not our technology vendor companies.
