Holy Eucharist Rite II

Prelude

Call to worship

*Sing to the Lord, you servants of his; give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.
For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, his favor for a lifetime.*

Psalm 30:4-5

Processional Hymn

"We sing the glorious conquest before Damascus' gate"

Hymn 255 v. 1&2

- 1. We sing the glorious conquest
before Damascus gate,
when Saul, the church's spoiler,
came breathing threats and hate.
God's light shone down from heaven
and broke across the path.
His presence pierced and blinded
the zealot in his wrath
- 2. O voice that spoke within him;
O strong, reproving Word;
O Love that sought and held him
a prisoner of his Lord;
help us to know your kingship
that we, in every hour,
in all that may confront us,
will trust your hidden power.

passing thought and fantasy,
that God, the Son of God, should take our mortal form for mortals' sake!

3. For us he prayed; for us he taught;
for us his daily works he wrought;
by words and signs and actions thus
still seeking not himself, but us.

5. For us he rose from death again;
for us he went on high to reign;
for us he sent his Spirit here,
to guide, to strengthen and to cheer.

The act of praying aloud in corporate worship and naming the people we are praying for connects us with God, with each other, and with each of them in a spiritual way even though we may not know them personally or what their specific needs are. God knows them and knows what they need. And God knows us and hears us as we pray. Each of the people on this list is in some way connected to St. Paul's or has made a request to be on our Prayer List. Please commend them to God with your whole heart.
