Welcome to Williamson County, where for the last 10 years we at the Williamson County Convention & Visitors Bureau have had the privilege of sharing the incredible stories, music, and personalities of communities like Brentwood, Fairview, Franklin, Leiper's Fork, Nolensville, and Thompson's Station.

You, the travelers to our beloved communities, whether visiting for the first time or if you've lost count by now, have witnessed a lot of fun, growth, and adventure over these last 10 years. We continue to seek innovative ways for you to enjoy our incredible history, world-class music, and of course our iconic Main Street. Part of that innovation includes new attractions like our Masters & Makers Trail (page 10) that links our breweries, distilleries, and winery. Of course, you'll still find longtime staples like the Battle of Franklin Civil War sites, firepits for gathering around in Leiper's Fork, and idyllic foods like the original Martin's BBQ Joint in Nolensville.

Because of you, we have had a decade of doing what we love—sharing the incredible stories of Williamson County—and we thank you! I hope you'll join us as we continue to grow and share your travel experiences with us.

I hope you enjoy your stay.

HISTORY

A photograph of two men in 19th-century attire kneeling in a field. The man in the foreground is wearing a dark hat, a patterned vest over a grey shirt, and blue trousers. He is loading a long-barreled rifle. The man behind him is wearing a similar hat and a yellow shirt. They are in a grassy field with trees in the background.

Williamson County is rooted in history. In fact, some of the events that shaped our nation happened right here in Williamson County. We invite you to step away from the current day and take a walk in the past at our well-preserved historic sites.
