Mission Statement

We, the members of Saint Benedict Parish, in union with our Pastoral staff, our Bishop, and our Holy Father, and together with the Church of Altoona-Johnstown, commit ourselves to the building up of the Kingdom of God in our personal lives, within our families, within our Faith Community, and in society as a whole. We join with one another in prayer and public worship, in the practice of gracious hospitality, and in works of charity and mutual support. Mindful of the Lord's care and loving concern for our common welfare, and with profound Faith and great hope, we strive to accomplish the tasks at hand and to meet the challenges of the future so that in all things God may be glorified.

May the angels lead you into paradise, may the martyrs come to welcome you, and take you to the holy city, the new and eternal Jerusalem.

Arise

At the invitation of Bishop Mark, our parish is beginning ARISE Together in Christ, a process of spiritual renewal presented throughout the Johnstown- Altoona dioceses. The ARISE Parish Team will continue to share information in future bulletin announcements.

The long-awaited Parish Photo Directories are in and may be picked up in the Parish Office during office hours. If you wish to purchase a directory, you will be placed on a waiting list to ensure those who were photographed receive their copy.

Attention

If you have a Pyx and are not using it regularly, please return it to the Parish Office or Sacristy.

Needed for Festival

We are making an appeal to our Parishioners for Gold Medal or Pillsbury Flour, powdered sugar, and regular Oreo cookies. Please put in a bag marked "Altar Rosary-Festival". These items can be left at all exits of the Church. Your generosity to this appeal is greatly appreciated.

Parish Festival

We are appealing to all of our Parishioners to help make our Parish festival the most successful ever! The weekend affair will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 27, 28, and 29. Please keep your schedule free for these days and plan to volunteer to work at one of our many booths or the Sunday dinner.

If you find any items that you can no longer use, why not put them in a box and donate them to our yard sale which will take place at this year's festival? Items may be dropped off at the School. No Electronics or clothing. For further information call or text Bob McGowan at 243-9421.

We will also need assistance with food preparation. If you are able to assist with making haluski and stuffed cabbage for the ethnic booth, please contact Martha Swarden at 344-8957; or with trimming chicken for the dinner, call Anna Mae Kelly at 344-8346.

Cucumbers will be needed the week of July 22 for the Festival dinner.

Anyone wishing to do a basket for the Basket Auction should call Norma Farabaugh at 344-6356.

Business owners and managers are also asked to sponsor a sign for one of the festival booths. The price for the three-day event cannot be beat — $50-$75. Payment can be dropped off at the Parish Office.

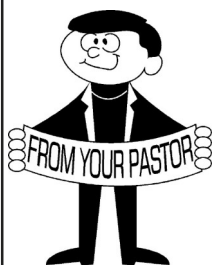

Don't miss our newest event: Car Cruise-In, on Saturday, July 28th from Noon to 5 p.m. on Church Street. For more information, Contact Linda Flora at (248) 789-0327.

Pastor's Reflection

Today's gospel teaches us mendicant poverty. This austere way of life is total and complete abandonment to the will and mercy of the Lord. The Lord is asking us to trust in His promise and realize that He will give all that we need for our salvation.

Peace,
Father Jude

Families and the Gospel

Mark 6:7-13 Jesus sent out His apostles without a lot of "things" because THINGS distract. We collect, argue about and protect our "things." We even ignore each other because we have "things" to do. What "things" are separating you from your family?

Stewardship Reflections

Participation in the Church's mission takes different forms according to people's different gifts and offices, but there is a fundamental obligation arising from the sacrament Baptism: that people place their gifts, resources, and themselves at God's service in and through the Church." (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response; USCCB; 1992).

Liturgical Reflection

Following the most ancient Christian tradition, the Church insistently recommends that the bodies of the deceased be buried in cemeteries or other sacred places. In memory of the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord, the mystery that illumines the Christian meaning of death, burial is above all the most fitting way to express faith and hope in the resurrection of the body. By burying the bodies of the faithful, the Church affirms her faith in the resurrection of the body, and intends to show the great dignity of our humanity which was assumed by Jesus our Lord.. Instruction Ad resurgendum cum Christo, Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, 2016, Number 3. (2018, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office.)

Catholic Ministries Drive

Thank you to all parishioners who have responded to the 2018 Catholic Ministries Drive. 151 of our families have generously donated/pledged $28,824.04 toward the Parish goal of $40,711.00. We are short $11,886.96 to reach our goal.

A story of Faith, Hope & Charity.

For many years, Elizabeth was hungry. Not for food, but for something more meaningful. She had a hunger and curiosity for a deeper understanding of her Catholic faith—way more than her Catholic education and Sunday Mass could provide.

"I would sit in the pew every Sunday and I would wonder why, and actually prayed that I would understand the Bible better. I knew other people had that understanding but I didn't. That's when I went to my first class on the New Testament."

At 55, Elizabeth admitted she went hesitantly but added that the class was comfortable and filled with the young and the old. She enjoyed it so much she continued to take classes on the Old Testament and attended one called Heart of Faith that focused on the Creed, the Sacraments, and Christian Life and Prayer.

Now years later, she says she's hungry again and plans on re-doing the New Testament class, citing that every class and instructor is different.

"You're never too old to learn," she adds. "When the Holy Spirit keeps knocking on your heart to learn, you've got to open it."

Your support today of Adult Enrichment helps the Diocese offer opportunities for everyone to live their faith more fully in the family, workplace and society.

Seven programs will be offered in the fall and can be taken at one's choosing: Heart of Faith; Old Testament; New Testament; Christian Prayer and Spirituality; Living Your Strengths Workshop; and Sacraments. The outcomes are spiritual formation, a greater love of your faith, and the development of your communication and leadership skills. For class schedules, go to: dioceseaj.org/adult-enrichment.

Your gift can be mailed to the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, P.O. Box 409, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648; placed in your parish offertory; or made online at www.dioceseaj.org.
