

1965 Alex H. Parker

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. for Alex H. Parker, 54, Bad Axe, who died Saturday at Hubbard hospital after a short illness. Elder Archie Dickinson conducted the rites at the MacAlpine funeral home and burial was in Colfax cemetery.

He was born July 21, 1911 in Grant township and lived his entire life in Huron county with the past 24 years in Bad Axe. On October 12, 1935 he married Buelah Leckenby at Sarnia, Ontario.

Mr. Parker had served as foreman at the Carmet plant in Bad Axe for the past few years.

Surviving him are his widow, six daughters, Mrs. Deanna Sommerfeld, Brighton; Mrs. Gayle Milgard, Port Austin, and Charlene, Bonnie, Laurie, Rennee, all at home; three grandchildren; sisters, Mrs. Flora Kivel, Elkton; Mrs. O.C. Howard, Sarnia; Mrs. Mazie McNeil, Mrs. Irene Cockerill and Mrs. Sidney Dunbar, all of Port Huron; three brothers, Elgin of California, Leonard, Port Huron, and Clifford, Detroit.

Also surviving are Mr. Parker's step-mother, Mrs. Everett Finkin, Valley Center, Michigan; a half-sister, Mrs. Paul Horton, Filion and a half-brother, Douglas Parker, Gagetown.