This is the ultimate class for students interested in trail riding either by themselves or in a group. This class is intended to help all riders on the trail be safe and in control under all conditions. Jerry teaches the skills necessary to help unsafe behaviors such as kicking on the trail, jiggling, not crossing water, herd bound/nervousness and navigating rough terrain. This class is set outside without fences or boundaries. It is open to all disciplines and all stock; horses, mules and donkeys.
