

Final SaLUTE

On Sunday, service members and friends of Vietnam veteran Lloyd King, who died March 27, attended a final salute for him at Walters Funeral Home in Lafayette. King was squad leader of the 101st Airborne Division's 'No Slack' battalion - B Company, 2nd Battalion, 327th Infantry. He served in Cam Ranh Bay, Ben Hoa, I-Corp and A Shau Valley during the Vietnam War. He will be laid to rest in Arlington National Cemetery. ABOVE, Marine Ronald Crowley, Vietnam veteran, Louisiana state commander and Purple Heart recipient, salutes while holding a memorial flag during the playing of taps.
