Business

1. The CSSMGA will have an end of the year dinner party at Aldaco's restaurant on the evening of Friday, Dec. 2. The cost will be $25/person (includes taxes/gratuity), excluding alcoholic beverages.
2. Members were reminded that they need 10 rounds of play in which their scores are counted in order to qualify for the Club Championship in November. Handicaps for September were posted for review and also indicated the status of player qualifications for the Club Championship.
3. A new software program ($100) is being reviewed to determine if it will be used to calculate handicaps and assist with tournament pairings.
4. Looking for nominations for President and Treasurer position for next year. If interested in running for openings, please contact one of the board members.
