

Our Social, Cultural, and Educational Outreach Activities

Dr. MLK Essay Contest: IndUS of Fox Valley was a proud co-sponsor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day celebrations, and donor of prizes to winners of essay contest in Appleton and Oshkosh, January 14, 2009.

Diversity Day at Hoover Elementary School, Neenah: Presentation as a part of Holidays and Festivals theme for Diversity Day, on March 2, 2009.

Diversity Fair at Neenah High School Annual Diversity : IndUS was a major participant at the Fair, held on May 1, 2009.

Volunteer Recognition Dinner: To celebrate and thank our volunteers. Held on May 9, 2009 at UW-Fox Valley.

Presentation on India at Edna Ferber Elementary School, Appleton: Presentation to kindergarten class at Ferber Elementary School, Appleton, on May 6, 2009, Gardens of the World: A program by Gardens of Fox Cities was held at Memorial Park IndUS presented and exhibited herbs, spices, vegetables from India, on May 16th, 2009.

India Heritage Day, Midwest iChild Conference, Green Lake: An annual camp of American parents from Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa and Ohio who have adopted children from India. IndUS presented a day-long program of games, cooking, dances, story-telling etc.

Foods of All Nations: IndUS volunteers constituted the bulk of the leadership that planned and executed the annual fund-raiser for Fox Cities Rotary Multi-Cultural Center (FCRMC). The event attracted 600 people on September 19, 2009.

Multicultural Night at Highlands Elementary School, Appleton. IndUS shared information about India, pictures, food samples, jewelry, currency and clothes on, November 6, 2009.

Multicultural Fair at Edna Ferber Elementary School, Appleton on November 14, 2009.

IndUS-2009 was celebrated on Saturday, November 21, 2009 at Radisson Paper Valley Hotel, Appleton. The theme was The Glorious Traditions of Indian Textiles and Jewelry. An exhibition, fashion show, banquet were followed by a play "Manihaar" specially written and produced for the occasion.