

Life Coaching / Relationship & Marriage Counseling Fees

Initial Session Cost:

The initial session for Individuals (50 minutes) is $60. For Couples, their first visit (about 75 minutes) is $95. My personal mission is to offer affordable life coaching/counseling, relationship and marriage counseling services to everyone who desires to improve aspects of themselves and their lives.

Ongoing Sessions After The Initial Visit:

After the initial session, my coaching/counseling fees are based on household income and ability to pay. My clients self-select from the fee chart below and make payment at the end of the session in cash, check or credit card.*

Household Income	Four Sessions Package Total*	Single Session
Under $30,000	$240	$70
$30,000-$70,000	$280	$80
$70,000-$100,000	$340	$95
Over $100,000	$400	$110

Note*: The initial session is introductory in terms of understanding why you are seeking Life Coaching/Counseling and learning the basic history of the individuals or the couples. I strongly encourage new clients to work with me for at least four sessions and that is why I offer discounted pricing for four-session packages.
