Dear Mr. Trump;

Warmest greeting to you. I am Paulett Angella Hemmings EARTH. I am the creator of this EARTH and many other creations outside the EARTH. I am here in the flesh and blood. I am not rubber, metal, or plastic. I will take over leadership of this EARTH from now on. Please do not take office in January, 2017. No one can become president of this country or a major government leader without my approval, and I have not approved your leadership of the USA.

All humans are my children. You have the courage to take on the leadership of this country, and that is commendable. I look forward to meeting you in person, and my best hope for the future.

With love,

Paulett Angella Hemmings EARTH
