

International Training Programme on the World Bank's New Procurement Framework
(November 13- November 24, 2017)

Indian Institute of Management-Lucknow
NOIDA Campus

The World Bank has introduced New Procurement Framework (NPF) with effect from July 1, 2016 which has introduced many significant changes in procurement procedures to be used in projects financed by the World Bank. The Indian Institute of Management, Lucknow (www.iiml.ac.in), one of the most prestigious management education institutions in South Asia, invites nominations for the upcoming training programme on World Bank's New Procurement Framework. Delivered in collaboration with the World Bank, this training programme will be useful for borrowers, implementing agencies, suppliers, contractors and consultants. It will be held at Noida Campus of IIM-L (25 km from New Delhi Airport). Faculty to conduct this training programme has been drawn from the World Bank and IIM-L and it is being coordinated by the Procurement Observatory, Uttar Pradesh, which is South Asia's first procurement observatory (<http://www.procurementobservatoryup.com/>). Training will be delivered in English. The participants are expected to have working knowledge of English. Weekends are free, during which the participants can explore rich heritage and fabulous markets of Delhi.
