

MOTIVATING AND PERSONAL VALUES

Name:	Date:
How import	ant is each of these things to you in your work or personal life? Always = a value you want in your life every day
	Often = a strong value but not as important as Always Sometimes = important to you some of the time
	Seldom = not very important
	Never = has no value to you

Example:

How important is this to me?	Always	Often	Sometimes	Seldom	Never
Work that is very interesting
Work on difficult problems					$\sqrt{}$

How important is this to me?	Always	Often	Sometimes	Seldom	Never
Work that is very interesting
Work on difficult problems
Get ahead rapidly, get promoted for work done well
Adventure and risks
Work with beautiful things or ideas
Affection, caring intimacy, love
Being a member of an organization
Creative artwork
Working alone or being in control
Feeling reverent, worship
Wearing casual clothing

Problem-solving Doing many different tasks
Close friends at work
Pride in my work
Neighbors and community
Having similar values as others at work
Good salary
Work that uses my talents
Competing against others
Doing what is socially correct and accepted
Writing and talking about ideas in my job
Starting new programs, finding new ways to do things
Making decisions
Faith and commitment
Continuing education
Working with energetic people
Nice, comfortable workplace
Work that is a good match with my beliefs
Excellence
Excitement about my work
Using my skills and knowledge
Caring for family
Working fast
Friends
Getting reports on how I'm doing at work
Regular hours
Time for recreation
Using many kinds of knowledge
Definite goals
Health

How important is this to me?	Always	Often	Sometimes	Seldom	Never Helping people directly
Making the world better
Being able to buy things I want in the future
Pay based on how well I do
Working independently
Influencing people's opinions
Being an expert
Quiet and peace at work
Fairness
Learning
Being a leader
Leisure activities
Good place to live
Making decisions
Having a teacher or mentor
Working for ideals or moral values
Being tidy and organized
Admiring and being loyal to a company or organization where I work
Job helps me learn and grow
Trying to improve myself
Job requires strength or agility
Being the boss or the person in charge
Careful and detailed work
Regular schedule, no surprises
Being able to make a lot of money
Much contact with people
Being important and admired
Job at a well-known organization
I can keep my job and salary for a long time
I can improve things at work

How important is this to me?	Always	Often	Sometimes	Seldom	Never
My duties will stay the same
Giving support and advice
People are impressed by my job
I get clear directions from others
I supervise other people
I can see results
Teamwork
Technical skill
Flexible schedule
Travel
Variety of experiences
Being noticed for what I do
Working alone
Research, new ideas
Working under pressure
Working closely with others
Other values:
Other values:

SUMMARY

•
•
•
	List the 4 more things from the Always column that are important to you:
	List the 4 more things from the Always column that are important to you:

see if there are ways your job could be changed to include more of your important values. It is also important to look at things you do (other than work) that support your values. Balancing these different parts of your life is what will bring you the greatest satisfaction.

Motivating and Personal Values