

Fall Conference Report from Shelly Mowinkel and Liz Crabtree

The fall conference was a success! The conference was held at the AIM Institute in Omaha. Attendees toured the Brain Exchange Building and experienced a variety of interactive modules related to coding, virtual reality, and robotics. Deb Wolken and Matt Maw shared information about their economic trip to Cuba. Members of the AIM Institute provided an energetic panel discussion. Thank you to Teresa for your time and energy put into organizing the event.