

It's Always A Foot Tapping...Hand Clapping...
Coyote Howling...Good Time!

Join Marshall along the trail of cowboy life with fun and interactive songs and stories that emphasize good character traits, self-esteem, and the importance of reading and education. You will imagine yourself out on the open range, riding herd on your trusty pony, and eating cowboy grub... then it's back to town... where your Library Will Rock and readers will roll on in and make their moves to Marshall's cowboy and cowgirl tunes.
