

Jean Swartz is Director of Admissions - Media Recruitment at Shenandoah University. She has a BS in Management from Purdue University and an MS in Outdoor Recreation Administration from Indiana University. After working for Indiana University and then the American Camp Association, Jean switched gears to college admissions 15 years ago.

Jean has two daughters, a recent JMU graduate and a JMU sophomore. In her spare time she enjoys hiking, chocolate, book/wine club, and meals and laughter with friends.