Article VII

Doctrine

It is recognized that the true church of Jesus Christ consists of all believers who believe in the saving grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and who have accepted Him as their personal Savior. It is recognized and agreed that no organization or man has been granted authority by the Lord to exclude from or accept anyone into the Kingdom of Heaven, as this is done by Jesus Christ only. It is further recognized and agreed that we as Christians are to love all members of the Body of Christ (Christians), and this love and fellowship derives from the unity instilled by the Holy Spirit. Although differences in doctrinal beliefs and interpretations should not influence our love for one another, adherence to similar doctrinal beliefs and modes of worship have bonded together those of the Apostolic Faith Movement as founded by Charles F. Parham in the early 1900's. The scripture teaches us to adhere to the truth and proper doctrine. The common doctrinal beliefs are essentially as follows.

- * Triune God; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
- * Creation and Formation
- * Man is basically sinful and in need of salvation
- * Salvation by Grace upon repentance toward God and acceptance of Jesus Christ as one's personal Savior, which is the conception of Spiritual Life
- * Sanctification of the Spirit, Soul, and Body, A second definite work of Grace by the Lord Jesus Christ
- * Baptism of the Holy Spirit; evidenced by the speaking in other languages
- * Water Baptism (of all believers) by immersion in water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit
- * Sacrament of the Lord's Supper
- * Washing of feet
- * Divine Healing through Jesus Christ for all believers
- * Do not condone divorce and remarriage
- * Destruction of the wicked
- * Conditional Immortality
- * Rapture of the Man Child Class
- * Return of Jesus Christ to earth again; bodily and visibly
- * A ministry supported by tithes and offerings

These doctrines shall be adhered to in the teachings of the Apostolic Faith Bible College, which in addition to other doctrinal teaching approved by the Board from time to time if they are not inconsistent with the above listed basic doctrines.

From the Superintendent's Office

What beautiful weather we are having here in Baxter Springs, Kansas. Spring is such a special time of the year when everything is showing new life and flourishing! I pray we as God's family are doing the same! In Psalms 9:13 we find a great promise, "Those that be planted in the houses of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God."

We are happy to report that both our Ministry Teams, Music and Mission, have returned from their adventures this spring and both were very successful. The Mission Team was able to go back to Reynosa, Mexico to assist Bro. Mark Russell with the children's home ministry. While there they directed Bible classes and games with the children, provided food and other items to many that were in need and also were able to do some "hands on" work in the building project that is in progress there. The Music Team returned from our southern tour with a greater understanding of ministry on the road! We had a great tour with many opportunities to encourage and pray for many of our brothers and sisters in Christ as the Spirit of God moved in the services.

With the Spring Tours behind us we are, at the time of this writing, gearing up for our annual College Day event (April 15) which is here on our campus. We have several potential students and interested young people planning to be here for the activities throughout the day and then on Friday evening we are hosting an area wide youth event with Bro. Eddie Sanchez as guest speaker. I encourage everyone to encourage your high school graduates and youth groups. These young people are the future of the church and it is important that we help them to "flourish" in their relationship with the Lord.

It is also time to once again to invite everyone to our year end graduation exercises on May 3, 4th and 5th here at Bible College. Every year end activity and every graduation is special but this year we are celebrating 70 consecutive years of AFBC ministry. That's right! Since 1946 the Lord had blessed this Bible College with students! Isn't that a wonderful statistic? But of equal importance is the fact that for 70 years the Lord has had men and women of faith willing to give of their time and energy as Superintendents and faculty here at AFBC. And because it has been God's work, He has provided! For 70 years He has had faithful people who have been willing to give of their finances, cattle (and other critters) and many other resources so the school can provide spiritual training and teaching hundreds of young people. Thank you so much!! Come and be a part!!

2016 AFBC Music Team

The 2016 Music Team Spring Tour has come to an end. The road gave each team member time to meditate on God's Word, ask for His guidance and prepare our hearts to serve His people. Our purpose, while on tour was to go forth and encourage Christ's Church with the message "This World Is Not My Home" but in doing so Christ encouraged and shared intimate things with all of us.

On behalf of the Music Team, I want to thank all of the churches that we served in for giving us the opportunity to minister. I'd also like to thank each host family that accommodated us, and every single person that supported and made the music tour possible. God is using you to make a difference in us! We thank you, appreciate you and love you!

AFBC Missions to Mexico - Spring 2016

This spring the Mission Team was blessed to serve at the Benito Juarez Children's Home in Reynosa, Mexico. We were able to assist them in laying the foundation of the new school they are building. We shoveled caliche into wheelbarrows, then hauled it to the site where we spread it out and tamped it down. This wasn't an easy job, but it taught us to work together as a team and not rely on our own strength but God's.

During the afternoons, we enjoyed directing a VBS for the children with the theme "God of This City", which consisted of Bible lessons, songs and crafts. Each student was able to share the Word of God during this time and found it to be an enriching experience. In doing so, it challenged them to grow in the things of God. The students stepped out of their comfort zones and into the confidence of Christ. As they shared the message you could see hope filling the eyes of the young kids. The children realized that their past circumstances were not greater than God. They had hope to bring to their city, the hope which lives in us daily, Jesus Christ. We had the opportunity to encourage, to share, to let God use us as vessels to bring His hope, His love and His promises to these children, to their staff and to the city of Reynosa.

During the trip things didn't always go as planned. We physically worked hard, had some injuries, spoke different languages, but in all this we learned to trust God. Though we may not speak the same language, we serve the same God, and the Holy Spirit flows through us making it possible to connect in a greater way. Over all it was a wonderful time. We felt the growth in our hearts as well as saw joy and hope in the faces of the children.

We would like to thank the Benito Juarez Children's Home for this opportunity. We appreciated all of the prayers and financial support that many of our Churches, AFBC Alumni, Friends and Family gave us so that we could share the message that Jesus Christ is God of our lives and the city of Reynosa. We would also like to thank all the Tri-State Churches for your giving of soccer balls, crayons, color books, shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, homemade gifts and blankets. All of these items blessed the staff and kids at the Children's Home.

Michelle Cloninger, Cody Harris & Lea Annette Lozano

The heart of the Mission Team rests in service to God first, then to those around us. Our students learn to follow God wholeheartedly and to be led of the Holy Spirit to serve others. They not only learned this but experienced it daily. Below are the student testimonies from our trip.

Hearing From God-Moriah Sanchez

What a mission trip! It was different than any I have been on. I found myself stretched both spiritually and physically. As we prepared to go to Mexico I asked God to let me hear His voice for the first time and to trust and believe He would. During our time in Reynosa I saw what happens when you believe and trust in the Lord. He does provide what we ask. He did that for me. I heard His voice and I got the chance to share with the children what the Lord spoke to me. I'm grateful for this experience and I will always remember it and I will continue to trust in the Lord and listen for His voice.

Cody Harris, Lea Annette Lozano, Jessica Lyon, Moriah Sanchez, Michelle Cloninger and Dakota Grantz

Completely Committed- Ashley Taylor

I really enjoy out of the country missions. When I heard we were going to Mexico I was so excited because I knew we would be working with children. There was one particular girl named Margot who touched my heart. She always wanted to sit by me and talk to me. She had a missing tooth so it made her smile look even more precious. Not only did the Lord touch me through her, He brought to light some things about myself. He showed me that I have commitment issues. I start many things in my life but never finish. So the Lord, through the children and shoveling dirt, taught me dedication and commitment. How I need to completely commit to the Lord and anything He puts before me. I am so glad I went on this trip and hope the Lord calls me back to Reynosa, Mexico.

Joy in Christ- Jessica Lyon

Bringing hope to Mexico is truly what I believe our team did during our mission trip. I remember how excited and joyful the kids were when we played soccer with them and pushed them on the swings. Just being a part of their lives brought encouragement to the kids. I was blessed to become friends with a cute girl. She was a sweet girl who loved to have fun and make others laugh. Every time she saw me she said my name. The staff and children of Reynosa were such a joy to be around. I'm so thankful and grateful to God for this opportunity. I learned that no matter where I am I can have joy.

Blessings of God- Dakota Grantz

During the mission trip to Mexico God spoke to me in two BIG ways. The one that really got me was just how much I am truly thankful to God for the things that I have, These kids at the home come from many varieties of life. Some may not eat every day, while others may live on the streets. Seeing these kids really opened my eyes. They appreciated the food they received. The Lord really showed me that I need to be thanking Him more often instead of taking things for granted. I left Mexico with a completely different outlook on life and with a lot more thanks for the life I have been blessed with.

But Jesus called them unto Him and said, Suffer little children to come unto me; and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Luke 18:16

Crosses Community Church Elkins, AR

Exciting things are happening at Crosses Community Church! Things may seem very bleak in this world, but aren't you glad our hope is not in this world????!! We have enjoyed God's presence in all of our services and what an opportunity it is to be able to freely gather together and worship Christ and learn of His promises!

Our Kids Club, which meets every Wednesday evening, just completed their "Joyful Worship" series and are now beginning a new study on being "BOLD" for Christ. We truly appreciate all those who work in our Wednesday Kids Club Service. (Kayla Tottey, Kendra Glenn, and Lyndzi Brannan).

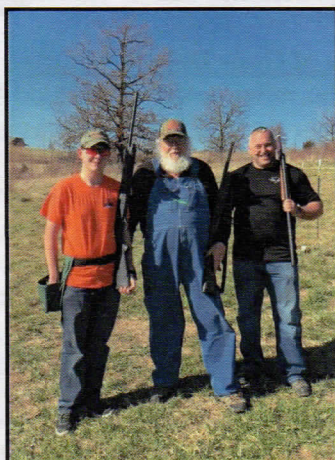

Our adults have enjoyed wonderful worship services! We have seen several receive Christ over the past 6 months! Praise the Lord! We are looking forward to warmer weather so that we can have another Baptism service at the river.

We have actually had unseasonably warm weather on several days, so we were able to have our annual Skeet Shoot and 4-Wheeler Rides. God blessed us with beautiful days on both occasions. Serving God is so much fun, and we do like to have some "play days" together here.

We are expecting to get our new "Multi Purpose" Building started within the next few months and we can hardly wait. We are needing the extra space. Please keep us in your prayers regarding that. We are believing for a debt-free building that will be used to glorify God and benefit our church and community.

May God bless all of you, and if you are ever in our area, give us a call! We would love for you to visit us and see what God is doing in Northwest Arkansas.

Thank You!

December 11, 2015 was a very exciting day for me! I graduated from Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education. I want to say a big THANK YOU to the AFBC Scholarship Committee for helping me pay my way through college! The money I received each semester was such a huge blessing!

I am so excited to see where the Lord takes me! Remember me in your prayers as the Lord uses me to show these children the love of God and pray that I will be a light in the public school system. Thank you again for your prayers and support.

Warriors VS Seniors

During the month of February 2016, The Warriors (5th-8th grades) challenged the Senior Adult Sunday School Class to see which class could bring the most shampoo and soccer balls for the AFBC Mission Team, who returned in March from Reynosa, Mexico. The challenge was accepted and the contest began. Every time we gathered for services the stack of shampoos and soccer balls grew as did the suspense of who the winners would be. It was also decided that the winning class would be awarded a crock pot of Sis. Karen's mac n cheese.

Warriors and Seniors all shared in the win!

Teenagers enjoying mac n cheese for counting

On the last Sunday evening of February the Teenage Class counted and recorded the outcome. The final count revealed that the Seniors had brought 30 soccer balls - Warriors -27, but the Warriors were ahead in bringing 130 bottles of shampoo to the 95 brought by the Seniors.

So who really won?

We all decided the real winners should be Bro. Russell's Kiddo's at the orphanage! PTL!

Where Has The Holiness Gone? How's My Behavior?

By Rev. Ron Noble-Follett, TX

I've noticed (from personal experience) that we don't like to be told how to behave our self. I mean we're grown people... aren't we? I've heard it said that although we don't know exactly how old the human race is, you'd think we'd be old enough to know better. But it seems we don't! Man left to his own devices (vices) has failed miserably...or very successfully failed (however you look at it).

How many times when growing up we were told to behave ourselves and then followed something to the effect of "cause if you don't..., or just wait till your father hears of this...(hmm)?" To me, "behave yourself" meant don't touch what I shouldn't, go somewhere or do something that would hurt me, someone else or their property, cost money that we didn't have...etc. However, good the intentions were of people telling me to do this made me 'feel' like they didn't think that I knew how to conduct myself without being told; like I was ignorant or something (imagine that!)

I grew up with parents that were concerned enough about me to discipline me when I did wrong; by not letting me go or do what I wanted or sometimes by letting me live under the guilt of my conscience, There were other ways that didn't seem pleasant for the moment, but I was taught that there would be and are consequences to right and wrong conduct. That's not hard to understand...is it? According to choices we make, we reap the action. If a person has unprotected sex (even protected) and gets a baby or disease, if they rob a bank, beat their spouse or a thousand other actions, there will be a reaction. I've seen signs on the back of a truck sometimes that read "how's my driving?" followed by a phone number to report complaints if the driver's performance is bad or reckless. Although an absurd gesture, how would it be if we as Christians wore a visible sign that asked "How's My Living? To complain call the Employer."

Webster's dictionary says that behave is to act in an acceptable way, to act properly, to conduct oneself in a proper manner. Do I act in a way that is acceptable to Him? Do we present ourselves properly as representatives of Him when we are in public (and in private)? How are our manners? (And I'm not talking just about at the dinner table.)

Have you ever heard (I mean really heard) the saying "What you do speaks so loudly I can't hear what you are saying?" Do we have a do as I say mentality or a do as I do? But I can just hear it now, "I'm a Christian. God loves me and set me free to do as I want because He's forgiven me. Don't judge me... it's my decision." If you believe that, you've been reading your Bible wrong.

There are several scriptures that should speak to us about this issue. I Samuel 18:5 reveals that 'David behaved himself wisely' and later records in Psalms 101:2 states a vow and profession of Godliness (that it may be good for me to make) "I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way... I will walk within my house with a perfect heart." He also stated in Psalms 31:2 " Surely I have behaved and quieted myself "

In the familiar 'love' chapter of I Corinthians 13, verse 5 tells us that "charity... does not behave itself unseemly," Paul the Apostle also reminds the people in I Thessalonians 2:10 "Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we have behaved ourselves among you that believe." (Could we make that boast") In speaking to the aged women in Titus 2: 3, Paul writes that they should, "be in behavior as becometh holiness".

Need I go on? I could. God wants us to conduct ourselves like men and women of His. Now I suppose the question could be raised that once we realize that we need to correct some (or maybe all of our behavior), how do we do it? This is simple...to say. First remember, as David did, that all changes in our lives are only possible as we rely on the "Lord , my Strength (in my weakness) and my Redeemer (that rescued me from the pit where my sins dragged me down.)

Secondly the way to behave ourselves is to find out what are God's guidelines, what boundaries and liberties He has put forth. To 'borrow' a phrase from Jesus mother in John 2, "Whatever He says to you do it." We pray(or hopefully will pray) the old prayer that says " I'll go where you want me to go, I'll say what you want me to say, I will do what you want me to do, I'll be what you want me to be."

It does take a willingness, a devoted willingness to "make good" on our promises such as these. However the opposite is true. What if God doesn't want us to go to a certain place that we feel like needs going to, what if God doesn't want us to say something that we feel like saying (Oh, big temptation here:, what if God doesn't want something done that we think ought to be done? The bottom line is that He wants us to be obedient; that He does want us to be conformed to the image of Jesus, the great example and pattern for us.

What we are talking about is plain (where it is evident to all) Christian living. It's about serving Him in all that we do. It's about putting into action that which we know is right(and the only way that we can know it is right is through the revealed Word of God and power of the Holy Spirit making it possible to be loved). It is showing to the world, to other

It is showing to the world, to other Christians and to God that we really have what we say we have! The proof or the measure of our relationship is how well we do live for Him.

I ran across this verse years ago (or rather it ran over me). Paul has written down in I Timothy 3:15 instructions from God about the correct way to do things on different issues and the purpose being, “that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God,…” Did you catch that? Divine inspired writing revealing how people of God ought to be and even says where this is to happen— In The House of God. This has to be more than just talking about how we are to act in the church building (although I have seen some things that are… well, we’ll leave that for now.) After all, interestingly, this word house is the same word as in Hebrews 3:6 where it says that Christ is faithful “over His own house, whose house are we.” The Church, the called out assembly isn’t, of course a building. It is the people that are His; those that profess to be Christians are to be the material with which God has to work.

So the urging is for us to know how to be! Believe me, I am not trying to dictate to you how I think it ought to be (I’ll let the Word do that). I am not saying that by doing good things on the outside we will win or earn the approval of God. I am saying that I know from what the Bible says that actions and words are supposed to be reflective of what’s in the heart. So if the heart isn’t clean and we try to put on what isn’t inside, we may fool some of the people but God will not be mocked (I’ve read that!).

I only want to challenge our thinking and urge us to consider our ways (a phrase from Haggai). Maybe it’s time for self examination and we might see some areas of our life that may need to be cleaned up. The conviction is from Him but the choice is ours. Am I, Are we a dirty house?

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. Hebrews 12:14
