Sunday Meditation

The Great Augustine once wrote: "Love God and do what you will." He didn't mean, of course, do what your fleshly mind tells you. He meant that "love fulfills the law." If we love God and man, we only want to obey God and serve man. The law is written in our hearts, so we can do what we will. "The whole law is fulfilled in this one word, 'you shall love your neighbor as yourself'" (Gal. 5:14). This law-fulfilling love is in us by the Spirit of Christ, Jesus living His life in us. For what else is the fruit of the Spirit (which is first, love) but the life and character of Jesus manifesting in our souls (Gal. 5:22)? Like Paul we can say, "Christ lives in me" (Gal. 2:20); and "We are all...being changed into [Christ's] likeness from one degree of glory to another..." (II Cor. 3:18). All for Jesus, Richard

Taylor Hammett June 20th Summer Series

How Christ Transforms Churches & Communities: New Society

Taylor Hammett is originally from Alabama, where he met his wife Tori in college. After working in College & Young Adult ministry for 10 years and completing a Master of Theology at Lipscomb University, the Hammetts moved to Atlanta in 2007 so Taylor could attend Candler School of Theology at Emory University and complete a Master of Divinity. He taught Bible courses at Greater Atlanta Christian School for five years and is currently the Lead Minister at Corners Church of Christ in Norcross. With two daughters, Taylor spends way more time watching princess movies than baseball! Contact him at taylor.hammett@gmail.com.

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. This is for children who are too old for nursery, but have the wiggles during the sermon! Parent's; your children will return to their seats during the closing announcements by our elders. We pray that this time will be a blessing for you & your children at Newnan Church of Christ!
