DIRECTOR'S NOTES:

What an incredible semester we have had with these Guys & Dolls! Frank Loesser's Golden Age musical 'Guys and Dolls' is a story of love, loyalty, and gambling in 1950s New York. Bringing this classic story to life with younger students has certainly presented its challenges. We asked our students to stretch themselves as actors and performers, delving into the hearts and minds of characters much older than themselves. Through it all, their enthusiasm and willingness to tackle new challenges head-on have truly impressed me. They've embraced the quirks and complexities of these iconic characters and worked incredibly hard in every single rehearsal.

This production marks my first time directing solo, and I could not have asked for a better group of students to do it with. From the very beginning, I have been inspired by the infectious energy of this crazy bunch. Watching them grow and flourish throughout the rehearsal process has been nothing short of remarkable. But beyond the hard work and tireless rehearsing, what has truly made this semester special is the sense of camaraderie and the joy of creating something together. Laughter has filled the rehearsal room, friendships have been forged, and memories have been made that will last a lifetime.

So as you sit back and enjoy the show tonight, I invite you to join me in celebrating these phenomenal young performers and all that they have accomplished. Thank you for supporting the arts and for being a part of this wonderful journey with us!

-Carly Haberman

Welcome to our rendition of "Guys and Dolls"! We're excited to bring this classic tale to life with a youthful twist. "Guys and Dolls" explores themes of love, loyalty, and redemption, all set against the backdrop of catchy tunes and witty dialogue. All of this is, of course, centered in a 1940/50s New York City. These students have worked hard to learn new vocabulary/references as well as their scenes, dances, and songs.

Thank you to the OPPA Staff, Board, Volunteers, Parents, and more who made this show possible! And thank you audience, for joining us on this journey into this heartwarming and humorous story.

-Elinor Blankenship
