

FREEDOM SEDER

AT BETH JUDAH • WILDWOOD, NJ

SATURDAY, APRIL 8 • 5:30PM

The story of Passover is resonant with modern experiences of systemic injustices and the dangerous fractures facing our society whether its antisemitism, racism, xenophobia or hate.

We face new Pharaohs in every generation.

Therefore, the goal of a FREEDOM SEDER is to help clarify the spiritual roots of the struggle for justice, peace, and freedom using the format of a seder as a catalyst for conversation. It is a participatory, cross-cultural, interfaith exchange that honors one of the most important Jewish holidays and celebrates our community as an upholder of freed.
