

2004 ANA SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Adeoluwa A. Omotola, Veterinary Medicine
University of Ibadan

Olubunmi Omojowolo, Medicine
University of Lagos

Orimisan Belle, Medicine
Obafemi Awolowo University, Ife

Igwechi Hope Wotobe, Religion and Cultural Studies
University of Port Harcourt

Oluseyi Owolabi, Physics
Federal University of Technology, Minna

Ayodeji O. Afolayan, Medicine
Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria

H. Onyinyechi Onyema, Biochemistry
Michael Okpara University of Agriculture

Omonigho Diejomaoh, Medicine
Delta State University

Chukwudi Mba, Microbiology
Ebonyi State University

Luqman Kolawole Yusuff, Electrical Engineering
Federal University of Technology, Akure

The Association of Nigerians Abroad would like to take this opportunity to thank you for attending this first lecture series and for your ongoing support.

The Association of Nigerians Abroad is a non-ethnic, non-religious and non-profit, tax exempt organization, incorporated in the State of New York, and certified under the Internal Revenue Service Tax Code Section 501(c)3.

ana

Association of Nigerians Abroad
Headquarters: 14932 Albion Rd, Cleveland, OH 44136 USA

www.ananet.org
ph: USA 440-263-5584
e-mail: ana-headquarters@ananet.org

Presents the Lecture Series:

“REDEFINING THE NIGERIAN EDUCATIONAL GOALS & LEADERSHIP”

12:00 pm - 4:00 pm
December 15, 2004
Abuja University

Followed By:

BANQUET RECEPTION

At NICON Hilton, Abuja
7:00 pm - 11:00 pm
December 15, 2004