Missionaries to Pray For
 Charles Shirley, IMB Missionary
 Suriname, South America

Suriname is a developing nation on northern South America's Atlantic coast. Our missionary Charles Shirley often finds himself paddling a canoe down rivers through thick jungles as he travels to villages to preach and share the Gospel. Such travel is dangerous, of course, and that's why Charles needs the prayer support of faithful Baptists.

On one recent trip, Charles and a team of volunteers headed toward a village to preach. As they walked through the jungle, Charles heard a husky voice calling his name. It was a Surinamese friend of his, Baa Umlonga. He asked Charles for medicine because his neck was swollen, his throat was sore and he had been unable to eat for two days. Charles and the volunteers gathered around Umlonga and prayed for God to heal him. They also shared the Gospel with him and told him Bible stories. Moved by their sincere caring, Umlonga prayed to receive Christ as his Savior. The team then went on their way to the village. Later they saw Umlonga in the village; an empty bowl was in front of him. "Look! I just ate! God healed my throat!" he cried out.

We should be thankful we serve a God who is able to heal a man deep in the jungles of Suriname as a way to assure people that what our missionary says about Him is true!
