President's Letter

The December TCMAFC Business Meeting was held on December 14, 2021, via the ZOOM video conferencing platform. Thank you to all who attended. The December business meeting notes are within this issue of the Aogah News.

The club also had the Annual Banquet on December 4th, 2021, at Cowboy Jack's in Bloomington, which was hosted by Peter Trence. Thanks go to Peter and his team for a great event, and an event well done! The meeting notes from the Annual Banquet are also in the Aogah Newsletter.

The 2021 Spark Plug Awards have been given to the following members: Doug and Deb Persing, John and Linda Pole, Dale and Cindy Pomerleau, Doug and Kim Portlance, and Dave and Cathy Kieger.

The 2021 Lifetime Membership Awards have been given to the following members: Steve and Leah Barnacle, and John and Linda Pole.

I want to personally thank the 2021 TCMAFC Board members for their help and dedication to the Club. The Board has completed some difficult tasks this year, and has been able to accomplish wonderful things for the Club, despite not being able to meet face to face throughout the year. Also, to the amazing and dedicated members who attend the monthly Business Meetings, Thank you. Your voices are heard, your suggestions are necessary, and your assistance and guidance is incredibly welcomed. The Club is so much better when we hear members voices.

There is great optimism that 2022 will have a yearly schedule closer to typical yearly events for the TCMAFC. The Club is hoping to add the Pancake Breakfast, and a monthly schedule of Clinics, along with the events that we had been able to have in 2021, as well as potential new events. The club was busy in 2021! I'm looking forward to an even better, event filled 2022!

The Club continues to research alternative locations for our 3rd Thursday clinics. At this time, St. Michael's Church in Roseville is not an option for us. Keep your attention tuned to the Aogah Newsletter. There will be a return to having clinics starting on January 20, 2022 at Christ Lutheran Church in Eagan. A February 17, 2022 clinic is also scheduled. Additional information on the January and February clinics is included in this edition.

Our Photo Contest for 2021 has come to a close and the winners have been chosen. It has been a difficult year, but it was great to have the participation of our members share with us some of their activities and creative moments. Judges this year were Lori Leder Fogel, Arne Fogel & Rebecca Fogel. They are the editors family and have been in and around Model A's . With Covid problems it was easiest to ask them to judge this year and they had a great time looking at all the photos. They were asked to choose their top three choices. One photo (Steve Barnacle's) made it on to each one of their lists . We will give Steve top honors with his photo and the rest are favorites and the honorable mentions are included as the Editors choice showing the spirit and intention of this contest. Get ideas and take your photos for next year as the contest will continue!. Prizes are on the way to our 2021 choices.

Elections Banquet December 2021

The event was held at Cowboy Jacks restaurant, where 44 TCMAFC members gathered for a meal and meeting. We again began by, spending a little time socializing, visiting and generally reconnecting, while the Cowboy Jacks wait staff finished preparations for the buffet lunch. Steve and Leah Barnacle used this time to organize the member, and club donated items for our Silent Auction. Many thanks to the members who graciously donated the many items. Winners were announced near the end of our event and the club collected $783 from our winning bidders.

Our buffet opened promptly at noon, and once everyone had eaten, it was time to call our Elections Meeting to order. Our board members for 2022 were introduced by Thom Boche, followed by a round of applause thanking them for their volunteer service to the club. Next on the agenda was presenting the awards, recognizing members whose service & support of the club, that has been exemplary.

One day this summer on the Barnacle's trip out toward Durango Colorado by Leah Barnacle

Day 9 July 13

Today can be described in these words: Exhilarating, white knuckled, nerve racking and frustrating!

Driving in the mountains isn't for the faint of heart. Steve wanted to go on this trip because he dreamed of driving on the Million Dollar Highway also known as the Red Mountain Pass with an elevation of 11,018 ft. As mountain passes go, this one is a winding road with steep drop offs and narrow shoulders for 45 miles! Although nervous, Steve had studied this pass at home and was determined we could do it even in an "A". We left the B & B at 7 so we could drive it without much traffic. Steve was elated that we made it! The car ran good and it was a relatively easy drive to that point.

As Steve white knuckled the rest of the 45 miles I found myself inching closer to him when we were at the edge, as if my life would be spared if we drove off the road! Ha ha! Once again the scenery was too beautiful for words and even though we took dozens of pictures none will do them justice.

I consider my marriage to Steve a fairly good one except when it comes to communication. We're usually in the same book, but sometimes not on the same page. Once we were down the mountain Steve planned on driving to Silverthorne, (in another mountain range). I thought it was straight east and we would go around the rest of the mountains. (my fault for not checking the CO map that Steve did bring along). We were driving east to the next town of Gunnison when we saw a huge sign saying the highway we were on was closed ahead. This is when the rest of our day went from good to bad!

A highway road worker held a sign telling us to stop, so we asked him what we should do. We had to turn around and go back to the town we came from and go north. The highway we were then on lead to the freeway and as much as I hate freeways when driving the "A" I was willing to do it. Still not knowing where we were going we followed the road to another town and gassed up.

As we studied the map, a woman told us to take the Gunnison pass detour if we wanted to get back to Gunnison. What a detour! We were once again on a winding mountain road with narrow shoulders and steep drop offs, except this was 50+ miles!! 2 ½ hours later we reached Gunnison and that's when I saw Silverthorne was just off the freeway that I was willing to drive on! Grrr, I was frustrated! After filling the car with gas again, Steve started it and we heard a clang, clang, clang like someone hitting a pipe with a hammer. We pulled over and the external hose that Steve had added to tell the water level in the radiator had come apart.. He fixed it and up the mountain we went again. I don't know how far we went when all of a sudden smoke was billowing out of the engine and the water gauge was at 210! Luckily, we were able to pull off the road in turnout area. Steve jumped out of the car and opened the hood. The hose had blown with hot water spurting out everywhere! He grabbed a towel and when he opened the radiator it blew like Old Faithful. He was lucky not to have gotten burned. The external hose had actually split so Steve cut it shorter and tied it to a piece of copper tubing with dental floss and a rubber band! He's creative and it works! As we pondered what to do about getting more water for the radiator a CO CDOT man pulled up behind us.

Next thing I knew he and Steve drove off and came back with a couple of gallons of water. Less than a ½ mile behind us was a spring coming out of the rocks! A pipe had been put into the mountain and that made it easy to fill the jugs. Once again we were off and running.

It's all becoming a blur, but after driving more miles, we stopped at another gas station and then turned to go up yet another mountain. We hadn't gone very far when Steve saw he had no oil pressure! Again, we were lucky that a turnout was right in front of us. Steve always carries extra oil, so he dumped 2 quarts in, but the dip stick still showed no oil. The only thing to do was to go back to the gas station and buy more oil. This time, though, we didn't head up the mountain, but instead tried driving to the nearest town, going "east". Unfortunately, we didn't get far when blue smoke was coming out of the tail pipe. Stopping once again, Steve looked under the hood and found the tube for the oil pressure gauge was split. We were in a dead zone, so I couldn't call Triple A, but a nice woman stopped to see if she could help. As it turned out Steve rummaged through his supplies that he did bring and cut some tubing from something and did his magic.

With these problems that will need to be fixed tomorrow, we were finally done with the mountains and trying to go to Silverthorne. I started calling the next town for a motel and everything was booked. I finally got a room in Cannon City. 2 more hours of driving and we stopped for the night at 8pm! 13 hours on the road and most of it felt like we were going in circles, but at least all our problems were fixed, even if only temporarily, and we were safe.

I know some of you may not believe in God, but we do and I feel that all the things that happened today, we were in His care. Steve was always able to fix the car, we always had turnouts, a spring for water and we didn't fall off the mountain. So for you that have prayed for us, I think God answered your prayers. And I thank all of you who sent good thoughts our way and wished us luck. I'm sure they helped ,too. We appreciate it all. Thanks!

Editors Back Page

I would like to thank each of the members for their contributions to our newsletter, It's your club so we need your input, stories and photos. I'm always open to your submissions and your fellow club members appreciate all types of different content that is displayed here.

We do look forward to getting back to our clinics, we are in the planning stages for a spring tune up clinic , short tours and perhaps some elder care home visits. We have had enjoyable summer business meeting at members home which again should happen in our summer season.

The Model A Ladies will again meet this month for a social coffee, breakfast, early lunch and are hoping to build the attendance so this becomes a more regular club event.

Some of our members do not use e mail and that can hamper them to be informed and be able to take advantage of certain club events and notifications. Let's try to create a buddy system to inform someone who does not use the e mail newsletter delivery or receive blast e mails. Should you not use e mail and would like to keep informed of late breaking news, such as a schedule change, the notification of a members death, or a last minute invitation to a parade or elder care home visit please ask a club member to be your "buddy". Should you need to find a buddy and don't know who to ask I could assemble a list of non e mail users and publish a list of those looking for member who would be able to call them and relate any blast e mails that go out. If you would like to have your name published send me a short letter with your phone contact and I will publish a list. I would then hope that an e mail member would look at the list and adopt one or two buddies.

I'm looking forward to another year of meeting new people interested in Model A's and the activities of the TCMAFC. For all the old members keep up the enthusiasm and sharing your experiences, knowledge and friendship with the membership. It is always great to volunteer for a club event as well as a committee or "official" position with in the club. Think of the events we have had and the work that has gone into them. It is reasonable to volunteer some of your time for the enjoyment that you have recieved. We look forward to events and they can only be held with the combined efforts of our members.

Wishing everyone a better 2022, good health , happy days and trouble free miles when the snow goes away.

Newsletter acceptance and deadlines. In order to put this newsletter out I need to have articles, ads for sale and general news in my possession by the beginning of the the third week of the month. Consider the 21st. day of the month the cut off. I need to allocate space for known items, certain meetings and club business. Wild card items do come up and I save some space to accommodate them. I would like items sent to me either by mail or e mail. Do not text ads to my phone. Please write your ads out and I can help edit them if needed. Contact me to remove ads that sell. I prefer that any newsletter items come to my personal e mail (mleder22@aol.com) . The club e mail address is used mainly as a one way service to deliver your newsletter and any late breaking club information items we feel you need to have. Since more than one person sends items out via TCMAFC @gmail.com , should you need to contact a person for clarification or assistance your board members, newsletter editor and committee members contacts are listed on the Presidents column page as well as in your membership roster. I appreciate all submissions to the newsletter however in order to give you a quality newsletter I need to have some preparation time to get it all together.
