

How to Lead in A Robot Era – 4 surprising strategies you must use to become more competitive

Scott Foster, President

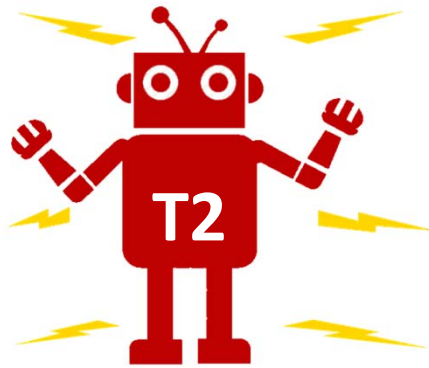

Takeaway 1

Use a pencil

- ☐ Don't overlook the simple, elegant solution
- ☐ Not every innovation requires a technology purchase (a bright, shiny and expensive object)

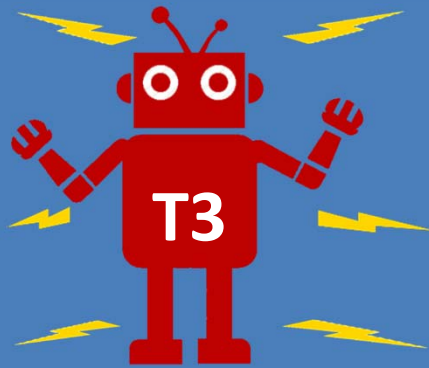

Takeaway 2

Speak the language of your audience

- ☐ Leadership – Data dashboard, reviews
- ☐ Employees & members – Respect, empathy, connect

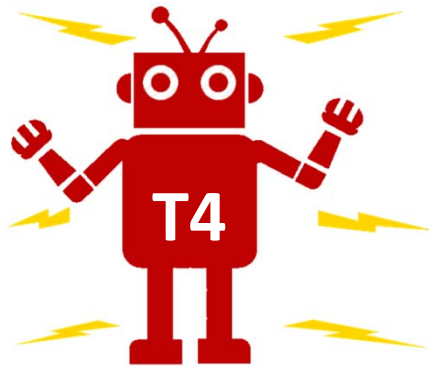

Takeaway 3

Get in the right wheelbarrow

- ☐ Lead by example
- ☐ Dialogue, not monologue
- ☐ Create an environment of psychological safety, trust and dignity
- ☐ Strengthen others
- ☐ Unravel the policies, bureaucracy and status quo that are getting in the way
- ☐ Ongoing leadership development

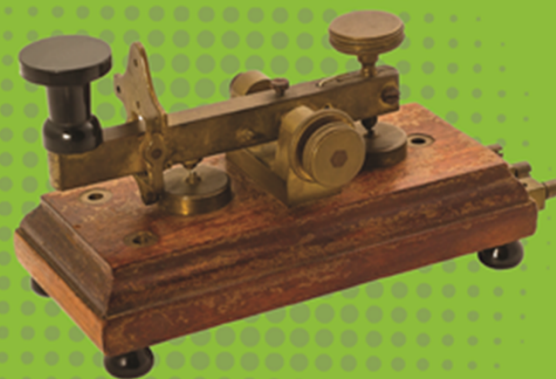

Takeaway 4

Allow margin to make it back from your mountain

- ☐ Make time for preventive health
- ☐ Are you underestimating the effects of stress?
- ☐ Evaluate meetings, activities & multi-tasking for removal, improvement or delegation (business & personal)
- ☐ Count your uplifts/blessings
