BORDENTOWN, NJ

MAUNDY THURSDAY

WELCOME TO CHRIST CHURCH

We extend a welcome to all visitors who are worshipping with us today. Christ Church is truly a beautiful edifice, erected and appointed to the Greater Glory of Almighty God. Herein you find all things in their proper place; everything focused toward the Altar, the center of our worship. The windows in the Nave depict some of the fathers of the early Church, both English and Latin. The Rood shows our Savior, robed as a Priest, with the right hand in Blessing. The Chapel forms a quiet restful spot where, before the Blessed Sacrament, one may kneel in supplication and reverence. We are proud of our worshipful Church and invite you to share its benefit. Come in, rest, pray apart from the world. Surely God is in His Holy Temple.

All who confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, have been baptized in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, are repentant of their sins and believe the Blessed Sacrament to be the true Body and Blood of Christ are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Altar. We hope that you will enter fully into worship by joining in the prayers, responses and hymns. Because our worship may be unfamiliar to those not raised in the Episcopal Church, feel free to ask the assistance of those around you in following and participating in the liturgy. If you are in search of a church home, we invite you to join us in worship, fellowship and service. Please sign the guest register at the church entrance so we may have a record of your visit.

Restrooms are located in the Parish House, and are accessible through the double doors by the pulpit or by exiting through main doors and accessing the Parish House by way of the side office door.

Pastoral Emergencies such as sickness, hospitalization, or the death of a loved one should be directed to Fr. Matt at 732.859.5823. Father is happy to respond to your needs even if you are not a parishioner, so please do not hesitate to call.

The AED is located to the left of the door to the parish office.

CONCERNING THE SERVICE

This day receives its name from the mandatum or the “new commandment” given by our Lord. At the Last Supper, Jesus washed his disciples’ feet and commanded them to love and serve one another as he had done. This service begins with a festal character: white vestments are worn; the Gloria in excelsis is sung; additional candles may be lit. This service has been called “a burst of sunshine in the gathering gloom.” We at once remember the joy of the institution of the Eucharist, the love and service which Jesus lived and taught, the agony in the garden of Gethsemane, and the betrayal leading to the Crucifixion. The bread and wine of the Last Supper are given new meaning by the Body broken and Blood poured out on the cross. Sufficient bread and wine will be consecrated on this day for the Mass of the Presanctified on Good Friday. The Sacrament is then taken to the Altar of Repose where the faithful are asked to “watch and pray.” The altar, symbolic of Christ, is stripped of its vesture and the building is left bare for the solemnity of Good Friday.

AT THE MASS

INTROIT Nos autem gloriári

BUT as for us, it behoveth us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: in whom is our salvation, our life and resurrection: by whom we were saved and obtained our freedom. Psalm 67. God be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us. But as for us...

AT THE MAUNDY

The Congregation stands for the Maundy Thursday Address.

THE ADDRESS

Fellow servants of our Lord Jesus Christ: On the night before his death, Jesus set an example for his disciples by washing their feet, an act of humble service. He taught that strength and growth in the life of the Kingdom of God come not by power, authority, or even miracle, but by such lowly service. We all need to remember his example, but none standeth more in need of this reminder than those whom the Lord hath called to the ordained ministry.

Therefore, I invite you who share in the royal priesthood of Christ to come forward, that I may recall whose servant I am by following the example of my Master. But come remembering his admonition that what will be done for you is also to be done by you to others, for “a servant is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them.”

The Congregation may be seated as those who will have their feet washed come forward.

ANTIPHON Dominus J sus

The Lord Jesus, after he had supped with his disciples: washed their feet, and said unto them: Know ye what I your Lord and Master have done to you. I have given you an example, that ye also should do so. Psalm 85. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. The Lord Jesus...

The Congregation rises for the Hymn and Prayers.

HYMN 69 Drop, drop slow tears

Song 46

OUR FATHER, secretly.

Celebrant And lead us not into temptation.
Congregation But deliver us from evil.
Celebrant Thou hast charged, O Lord.
Congregation That we should diligently keep thy commandments.
Celebrant Thou didst wash the feet of thy disciples.
Congregation Despise not the works of thine own hands.
Celebrant Lord, hear my prayer.
Congregation And let my cry come unto thee.
Celebrant The Lord be with you.
Congregation And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to assist this our bounden duty and service; and forasmuch as thou didst vouchsafe to wash the feet of thy disciples, despise not thou the works of thine own hands, which thou hast bidden us to follow: and mercifully grant that as we have this day washed away our outward defilements, so by thee we may inwardly be cleansed from all our offences: Who livest and reignest with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE PEACE The Congregation may greet one another in the Name of the Lord, and then be seated.

INTENTIONS OF THE MASS

Celebrant ...rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
Congregation and let light perpetual shine upon them.
Celebrant ✠May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, by the mercies of God, rest in peace. Amen.

MOTET AT THE OFFERING Ave Verum Corpus

William Byrd (1543-1623)

Ave verum Corpus, natum de
Maria Virgine, vere passum,
Immolatum in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum unda
fluxit sanguine; esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.

*All hail, O true Body, of the blessed Virgin
born which in anguish to redeem us did'st suffer upon the cross; from whose side,
when pierced by spear, there came forth
both water and blood: be to us the source of consolation.*

The Congregation stands for the Hymn through the Sursum Corda and Benedictus qui venit.

COMMUNION Dominus Jésus

The Lord Jesus, after he had supped with his disciples, and had washed their feet, said unto them: Know ye what I your Lord and Master have done to you? I have given you an example that ye should do as I have done to you.

ECCE AGNUS DEI

As soon as the Celebrant has finished distributing Holy Communion to the altar party and choir, the members of the Congregation should approach the altar rail. Once you have received the Sacrament or a Blessing, please return to your pew and kneel or sit, as needed.

A hymn to Christ in his sacramental presence.

| SWEET Sacrament divine,
Hid in thine earthly home,
Lo, round thy lowly shrine,
With suppliant hearts we come;
Jesu, to thee our voice we raise
In songs of love and heartfelt praise:
Sweet Sacrament divine. | 3 Sweet Sacrament of rest,
Ark from the ocean's roar,
Within thy shelter blest
Soon may we reach the shore;
Save us, for still the tempest raves,
Save, lest we sink beneath the waves:
Sweet Sacrament of rest. |
| 2 Sweet Sacrament of peace,
Dear home for every heart,
Where restless yearnings cease
And sorrows all depart;
There in thine ear all trustfully
We tell our tale of misery:
Sweet Sacrament of peace. | 4 Sweet Sacrament divine,
Earth's light and jubilee,
In thy far depths doth shine
The Godhead's majesty;
Sweet light, so shine on us, we pray
That earthly joys may fade away:
Sweet Sacrament divine. |

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

O Lord our God, who hast refreshed us with life-giving sustenance, we beseech thee: that we who observe this institution in the time of our mortal life may obtain the benefit thereof in thy gift of immortality. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
