

Affinity Power Company

Letter of Exclusivity

To Whom It May Concern:

(Company Name and Address)

Please accept this letter as our formal designation of Affinity-Power Company as our exclusive electricity procurement agent. This letter shall also serve as a formal rescission of any prior designation of agents, brokers, consultants, sales people, aggregators, or marketers as our representative in electricity procurement activities. Affinity-Power Company shall have full power and authority to act on our behalf in negotiating electricity contracts with any Retail Electric Provider that offers service in the Texas market.

You are permitted to accept this letter as authentic whether it is the original executed document or a copy thereof. By my signature affixed to this request, I affirm that I have the authority to make and sign this request on behalf of my company.

This letter is not a Power of Attorney, and is not intended to authorize Affinity-Power Company to enter into any agreements, or contracts. This designation of Affinity-Power Company as our exclusive electricity procurement agent may be revoked at anytime without notice. Revocation would take effect immediately.
