

X-12 Number 8 Continues Utah Hillclimbing Tradition

Words by Ron Dillon

On May 13-15, 2022, Utah's only hillclimb, known as X-12, fired up for the eighth time, off of I-15 near the Idaho/Utah border. For the first time since moving to its new location in 2018, the entire weekend was rain free. The event was also the first round of the 2022 Rockwell Pro Hillclimb Series, and that brought out a lot of people, eager to kick off a new year of hillclimbing on the biggest hill in the sport, and people showed up from as far away as Texas, Seattle, and Southern California.

Hillclimb enthusiasm was higher than ever this year, and partners and supporters were: Pure Adrenaline Motorsports, Spike Motorsports, Box Elder County Tourism, Frank May Ski-Doo, Whitaker Construction, Cache Valley Honda/Yamaha, Young's Powersports, Rockwell Time, Rupp's Trucking, Roche Ranches, Ballz Clothing, Lincoln Financial, and Gearheads.

Five different hills were used over the weekend. Hundreds of stock, trophy bikes ran on their own 1,025-foot hill on Saturday, and for the fourth year in a row, not a single rider made it over, with even the best struggling to get above 600 feet, and many looping out in huge fashion because of the steepness of the hill. Local racer, Cash Nish set the high mark on the mighty hill of 827 feet, which put him at the top of the always gigantic 450 four-stroke stock class, and score one for the old guys, as Idaho's Ken Thornton, who turned 60 recently, somehow, somehow, clawed his way up to 810 feet on his 350 Husky, with an amazing ride. Later in the day, a number of altered and semi-pro riders made it over on several different routes, but again, many were simply over-whelmed by the sheer size of the hills, which were so long and so big that some actually complained about arm pump. This might just be the toughest hill in the country right now; it certainly is the biggest, and this year it was dry all weekend which made it even tougher, since there wasn't as much traction as usual.

On the pro side, Wyoming's Ryan Gallegos had a huge weekend, winning the 450 Pro class by nearly a full second, topping the 600 class by nearly SIX seconds, and edging out local go-faster Karson Lloyd to also grab the 700 class win. Utah's Craig Spencer had a fantastic ride in the Open pro class, to out-duel Karson Lloyd, and set the fastest time of the weekend. As usual, Open class riders raved about the joys of a 30-second pro hill, the longest in the world, and a place where big bikes can be opened up and held there while they eat.

The organizers again wish to extend a hearty "helmets off" to the sponsors, donators and partners. A big thank you is in order to Spanky Flint and his Dirty Dog Racing Crew, Steve Hensley, the dynamic duo of Johnny and De-Lila, Don and Gail Earhardt, and announcer Don Flint. The event could also not have happened without the support of Stan Summers and the other Box Elder County Commissioners, the Fielding EMS staff, and adjacent landowner, Cody Reese. Utah's ONLY hillclimb will return on May 12-14, 2023. For more information visit: www.x12events.com or call Ron at (208) 573-4255. Our trophy classes were huge, so we ran out of trophies. Please let us know if we owe you one.

X-12 by the Numbers: Number of stock bikes that made the hill – 0, Fastest time on pro hill – 34.182, Slowest time on the pro hill – 69.878, Highest run without making it over – 1,540 feet, Pro purse - $13,000, Semi-Pro Purse - $6,300, Total cash paid out - $19,300, Spectators – 1,250, Total Entries – 540, Licensed Pro Entries – 133,

Long-time hillclimber, Travis Jackman, giving advice to 13 year-old daughter Rylee in the Women's Pro class.
