6th December 7.30pm at Holy Family: Training session for readers at Mass. It is vital for those performing such an important role in the Mass to have periodic training so that we read to the best of our abilities. This will be a short session of half an hour to remind ourselves of the basics. It is important that all readers from both churches try to attend.

Tuesday 8th November is the anniversary of the consecration of St Anne's Church in Westby. Such anniversaries are marked as an annual solemnity in consecrated churches. Fr John will celebrate the 10.30am Mass at Westby that day.
