

Rickey L. Saulsbury

OIL CITY, LA - Graveside services for Rickey L. Saulsbury, 35, will be held at 11 a.m., Tuesday, November 17, 1998 at Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Oil City, La. Officiating the services will be Rev. Jeff Hoffman. Mr. Saulsbury was born October 15, 1963 in Odessa, Texas and died November 12, 1998 in Kansas City, MO.

He grew up in Oil City but lived the last 12 years in Kansas City, where he was employed at Truman Medical Center. He also was an antique dealer, who specialized in antique glassware. Mr. Saulsbury was a member of the Grace Spiritual Baptist Church, where he volunteered his time to work with the needy and drug and alcohol counseling.

Mr. Saulsbury was preceded in death by his Papo-Luke Saulsbury. He is survived by his parents, Ronald and Debbie Saulsbury of Oil City, La.; two brothers, Shane and his wife, Rhonda Saulsbury of Blanchard, La.; Robbie and his wife, Leah Saulsbury of Oil City, LA; two nieces, Brooke and Breanne; grandparents, B. Saulsbury of Shreveport, La.; Bob and Velda Hay of Dadeville, Ala.; three aunts, Kay Helms and her husband, Bob of Cedar City, Utah; Ann and her husband, Norman Festervand of New Caney, Texas, Beverly and her husband, Jack Barron of Carmel, La.; his extended family in Kansas City; his very special cousins, Bill and Joann Wisdom; Bill and Phyllis Saulsbury; and numerous other relatives and friends.