ONE NATION
Under God

First Church of Christ, Scientist, San Juan Capistrano

Founding Purpose

Our purpose is to promote unconditional love, spiritual growth and healing based on the Bible and the writings of Mary Baker Eddy.

from The Holy Bible, John 8:32 (KJV)

Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. Christ Jesus from Miscellaneous Writings, by Mary Baker Eddy, pp 176:23-24 & 251:12-19

The Pilgrims came to establish a nation in true freedom, in the rights of conscience.

*To-day we commemorate not only our nation's civil and religious freedom, but a greater even, the liberty of the sons of God, the inalienable rights and radiant reality of Christianity, whereof our Master said: 'The works that I do shall he do;' and, 'The kingdom of God cometh not with observation' (with knowledge obtained from the senses), but 'the kingdom of God is within you,'
— within the present possibilities of mankind.*

OUR JULY TITHING RECIPIENT

We Are Uno

UPDATE!

We will be having another group testing of Zoom - the video link to our meetings - soon. We'd like as many people as possible to participate to test Zoom's capacity, so we may schedule it immediately after church so the teleconference callers can all phone in to the Zoom phone number at the same time. Stay tuned for the announcement about that date.

We are considering moving to Zoom so that our internet callers can give testimonies, and to simplify our system to bring together all telephone and internet callers in one place. You will still be able to call in on your phone, though we would be using a different phone number in the future.

Also, if you would like some coaching on using Zoom (either on telephone, laptop, iPad, or smart phone), the Zoom website (zoom.us) has a lot of good information and video tutorials to help you. Check out these helpful links:

Reflections on/of freedom

By LOWELL N. CANNON

From the September 13, 1982 issue of the Christian Science Sentinel

<https://sentinel.christianscience.com/issues/1982/9/84-37/reflections-on-of-freedom>

Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

(John 8:32)

me? free?

yes, and yes.

from what?

free from shackling fears,
sorrow's tears,
and wasted years.

free from jealousy's chain,
false pleasure and pain,
sin's crimson stain.

must freedom just be "from"?

no!

As every good release has its follow-through,
so, with freedom from comes also freedom to.

to what?

free to follow where Love leads—tending flocks;
sowing seeds.

free to comfort,
cleanse,
and heal
by knowing Truth as real.

free to be the me
God created me to be?
Yes!

In the year 1897, Mrs. Eddy invited her followers to visit her at Pleasant View on Independence Day...

By Irving C. Tomlinson

From the September 1997 issue of The Christian Science Journal

In the year 1897, Mrs. Eddy invited her followers to visit her at Pleasant View on Independence Day. ... Among those who took the journey was a mother, accompanied by her two children.

When they were about to start from their home in the Middle West, it was discovered that the small daughter, seven years old, had a very sore spot which protruded from the head and was very much inflamed. . . . Although the mother tried to meet the condition through prayerful mental work, yet in the morning, when they were to go out to Pleasant View, the swelling had enlarged until it stood out from her head and was more inflamed than ever....

After the speaking was over at Pleasant View, Mrs. Eddy sat upon the porch and greeted the people as they passed through the porte-cochere. The mother was preceded in the line by her children. When these two little ones, a boy of nine and the girl of seven, arrived in front of Mrs. Eddy, they stopped the whole procession and stood looking up into her face smiling joyously. Mrs. Eddy looked at them and then looked at the mother, and smiled back at the children, as someone told them to pass along. This is the mother's account of her illuminating experience:

I wish I could make the world know what I saw when Mrs. Eddy looked at those children. It was a revelation to me. I saw for the first time the real Mother-Love, and I knew that I did not have it. I had a strange, agonized sense of being absolutely cut off from the children. It is impossible to put into words what the uncovering of my own lack of real Mother-Love meant to me.

As I turned in the procession and walked toward the line of trees in the front of the yard, there was a bird sitting on the limb of a tree, and I saw the same love, poured out on that bird that I had seen flow from Mrs. Eddy to my children. I looked down at the grass and the flowers and there was the same Love resting on them. It is difficult for me to put into words what I saw. This Love was everywhere, like the light, but it was divine, not mere human affection.

I looked at the people milling around on the lawn and I saw it poured out on them. I thought of the various discords in this field, and I saw, for the first time, the absolute unreality of everything but this infinite Love. It was not only everywhere present, like the light, but it was an intelligent presence that spoke to me, and I found myself weeping as I walked back and forth under the trees and saying out loud, "Why did I never know you before? Why have I not known you always?"

I don't know how long it was until my boy came to me and said, "Come, mother, they are going home." I got into the carriage and drove back to the hotel, but that same conscious intelligence and Love were everywhere. It rested upon everything my thought rested on.

When we got back to the hotel, there was no boil on my child's head.
