

Michael A. Fowler PE
Structural Engineer

Summary of Qualifications

Mr. Fowler is a retired Principal of Clark Engineering Corporation. His responsibilities included engineering design, project management, coordination, and quality control. Mr. Fowler is experienced in the structural design and administration of commercial, retail, educational, Industrial, Housing and institutional facilities. His responsibilities included interfacing with the project Architect and Owner, maintaining economy of construction, and promoting creativity within the project staff and team.

Education

B.S., Civil Engineering, University of Minnesota, 1965

Excelsior Engineering, LLC

Upon my retirement from Clark Engineering, I established Excelsior Engineering and concentrated on small commercial and residential projects, construction issues and aluminum structures with an emphasis on aluminum balconies and their components.

Professional Registrations and Affiliations

Minnesota License Number 8596 - was licensed in 31 Additional States- now 2 states.

American Concrete Institute

American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC/MN)

Post-Tensioning Institute