Paul Begins to Follow Jesus

Bible story from Acts 9:1-22; 22:12-16

Art by Len Ebert

Paul was going to Damascus. He wanted to find Christians and take them as prisoners.

But Jesus spoke to Paul in a bright light. "I am Jesus. You are trying to hurt me."

Paul opened his eyes, but he could not see. For three days Paul did not eat or drink.

God told a man named Ananias to go help Paul. Ananias placed his hands on Paul. Immediately Paul could see again! Then Paul was baptized.

Paul went into the synagogues. Now Paul said, "Jesus is the Son of God!" The people who heard him were surprised.

FAMILY FUN ACTIVITIES

TOGETHER TIME!

Plan a time for everyone in the family to read their Bibles together. Read a story about Jesus in your adult Bible. Then help a child in the family read the same story in a children's Bible. Thank God that His Word can be read by people of all ages.

CARE & SHARE

God chose Paul to help other people learn about Jesus. Talk about a missionary you know who tells people about Jesus. If possible, have a garage sale or do some odd jobs to earn extra money. Send all the proceeds to the missionary. Include with your donation a letter, thanking the individual or family for helping others learn about Jesus, God's Son.

Remember, WE SHOULD LEARN ABOUT JESUS.
