Solar Eclipse

at 10:16 am PDT (just past noon in the central time zone). Over the next hour and a half, the path of totality will cross the country diagonally from Oregon to South Carolina. According to NASA, the longest duration will be near Carbondale, Illinois, where the sun will be completely covered for two minutes and 40 seconds.

“This will be the first total solar eclipse visible in the continental US in 38 years, and we’re pleased to provide Mediacom viewers with a safe and comfortable way to see NASA’s high-quality broadcast,” said Mediacom Senior Vice President Ed Pardini.

NASA’s coverage will feature stunning views obtained from jet aircraft, high-altitude balloons, satellites and specially modified telescopes. The program will also include live reports from Salem, Oregon; Idaho Falls, Idaho; Beatrice, Nebraska; Jefferson City, Missouri; Carbondale, Illinois; Hopkinsville, Kentucky; Clarksville, Tennessee and Charleston, South Carolina. # Deer Hunters will find Additional Opportunities this Fall

MN Department of Natural Resources

Additional deer hunting opportunities will be available this fall thanks to a series of mild winters and conservative hunting regulations, which have resulted in rebounding deer populations across Minnesota.

Hunters can buy deer licenses and apply to the lottery for antlerless deer permits now. The deadline to apply for the antlerless permit lottery is Thursday, Sept. 7. Archery deer season opens Saturday, Sept. 16, and firearms deer season opens Saturday, Nov. 4.

All hunters who purchase licenses by Sept. 7 are automatically entered into the lottery if they declare a lottery deer permit area when they buy their license. Those who do not wish to harvest an antlerless deer are encouraged to purchase their license after the lottery deadline.

Deer hunting licenses, lottery applications and special hunt applications are available at any DNR license agent, by telephone at 888-646-6367 or online. Lottery winners will be notified in October.
