Jane DeStefano

Hello Everyone! I would like to wish all of you a happy and healthy new year. Our guild has weathered through a difficult year to say the least and our quilting community continues on. I would like to welcome all members new and old to 2021. We all have followed social distancing at our meeting and wearing our masks. This will continue.

January's program will be a presentation from our local quilt shops showing us all the goodies available at their shops. I am excited that they are coming to our guild and believe in supporting our local shops. Please come. These stores are where your quilting journey will begin. If you are interested in learning how to quilt, these shops provide beginners quilting classes that will help you. It is always fun to see what is available at all of the stores in our area.

In this newsletter, you will find a list of 2021/2022 guild officers and committee leaders. Thank you in advance for helping as it certainly takes a village to make this work. We still need someone to do "Block of the Month". Last year many participated in doing the quilt with basket blocks. It was great to see the different fabrics used to create the finished quilt. Please consider leading our guild to creating a fun project.

We also need someone to lead the Quilt Show for 2022. Without a quilt show, we cannot survive because this show provides the financial support we need to continue. It takes at least a year and one half to prepare. Remember, you will have a team to assist. Please let me know if you are interested.

Lastly, this year is an auction year which also helps us financially. Annette Kuder will lead the Quilt auction for 2021. Just a reminder to encourage members to participate by donating projects for auction. More to follow from Annette.

It's time to start the New Year off right with a visit from our local quilt shops! We haven't done pop-up shops for a while so I thought I'd give our local quilt shops a fresh start in 2021 by finding out what they have in store for us for the coming year. I have asked representatives/owners of Katie B's, the Painted Pony, the Sparkling Elephant, And Sew It Began and Teo's Treasures to give a brief talk on their shops, BOM's, classes etc. They will also have tables set up with items to sell so bring your wallets. Let's support our local shops – they are here for us!

Hospitality

We will not be serving refreshments at our January meeting. If you wish refreshments, bring your own.

Minutes of the BAQG December 2020 General Meeting – Kelly Gibson – Secretary

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 pm by President Jane Ott. Jane welcomed all to the meeting and the Christmas party. Vicki Carroll lead the group in a prayer. Jane asked members to remember the family of BAQG member Linda Arthur. Linda passed away on November 26, 2020. The guild needs one more volunteer on the budget committee. The guild also needs an audit committee. Volunteers for the audit committee should contact Gloria Hill. Gloria Hill gave the Treasurer's report. Becky Trigg presented the beautiful completed BOM quilts and quilt tops that were on display and awarded BOM drawing prizes. Sharon Wood, Kelly Pilkington, Melissa Pingry and Jane Ott presented their beautiful completed quilts at Show and Tell. Members enjoyed a 'buffet' of a variety of holiday desserts. All were individually wrapped because we are still in a pandemic. It was really wonderful that the guild found a way to enjoy delicious food as part of our Christmas fellowship. Jane Ott presided over the induction of the 2021 BAQG officers. Lastly, we played 4 rounds of Quilto, a bingo game for quilters. Prizes were awarded to the winners of each round.

Twenty, Twenty-one!

Happy New Year, hopefully 2021 will be much better than 2020. Who knew our stitching would be our outlet?! We have a lot planned! January brings American Gatherings, a line by Lisa Bongeant and her stitch along. We are going to receive several patriotic bundles so you can join her in the fun. Flag Kits are coming as well from the same line!

Our very own block of the month to make a re-designed Long Time Gone by Jen Kingwell, using 30's fabrics along with Lori Holt's Prim line to bring you're a fun and cheerful quilt. It's $23 a month.

New kits made using blues to make up Primitive Gatherings, Indicon pattern. A quilt you can easily strip piece and has no points, only intersections. We also have a very nice "low volume" quilt that's sure to please, called "Halloween-ish".

Our online shop is always open and gift certificates are at your fingertips, if you need a last-minute gift. We ship and also offer curbside pickup.

Happy Stitching!
