

TRAVIS DALE SCHAAF

1973 - 1992

Travis Dale Schaaf, 19 of Sebewaing, died Wednesday morning, Sept. 30, at Bay Medical Center, Bay City, from injuries received in a pickup truck accident near Unionville.

He was born July 16, 1973, in Pigeon, son of Bert and Mary Lee (Schlabach) Schaaf of Sebewaing.

Mr. Schaaf attended Pigeon Elementary School and Unionville-Sebewaing Area Elementary School and was a 1992 graduate of USA High School.

He attended Faith Gospel Tabernacle of Bad Axe, was a member of Blue Water Youth For Christ and was in the early entry program with the U.S. Marine Corps.

He had been employed with Michigan Roofing Company, Kingston.

Surviving are his parents, Bert and Mary Schaaf of Sebewaing; two brothers, Nathan and Ryan Schaaf, both at home; his grandparents, Clyde and Elizabeth Schlabach; Henry and Marguerite Farver, all of Elkton; plus several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3, at Faith Gospel Tabernacle, Bad Axe. Rev. James Willett officiated and burial was in the Sebewaing Assembly of God Cemetery.