

Cutcher, Tammy

Tammy A. Cutcher, 39, of Pigeon died Thursday afternoon, Aug. 30, 2001, at St. Mary's Medical Center in Saginaw of injuries she received in an auto accident south of Ubly. She was born Dec. 15, 1961 to William and Patricia (Steemberg) Mierendorff in Port Huron. Tammy grew up in the Port Huron area and moved to the Elkton-Pigeon area in 1991. She was employed at Gemini Plastics, Ubly. She enjoyed NASCAR racing, playing pool, and had a unique love of animals. Surviving are four children, Charles Mierendorff of Elkton, Jeremy, Nick, and Beth, all at home; husband, Harvey Bland of Pigeon; her parents, Bill and Pat Mierendorff of Elkton; two sisters, Cindy Melnik and her husband, Ron, of Tyre, and Heidi Guigar and her husband, Robert, of Emmett; maternal grandmother, Isabell Steemberg of Port Huron; and nine nieces and nephews, Mike, Bonnie, Jason, Renee, Courtney, RJay, Hannah, Robert, Jr., and David. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 4, 2001, at the Community Wesleyan Church, Elkton. The Rev. F. Robert Tucker, pastor of the Potter House Christian Fellowship Church in Cass City, will officiate with burial in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. Visitation will be at the Community Wesleyan Church from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday.