

Jeannie McGuire All American Walking Horse Alliance

Jeannie McGuire

Jeannie holds a degree in Equestrian Studies, majoring in combined training, dressage and farrier science. She is a student of the horse and believes riding is form of art.

She embraces all breeds of horses and riding disciplines yet her true love is the heritage, all natural Tennessee Walking Horse. Practicing Classical Horsemanship and Connected Riding, Jeannie has applied these principles in her training to enhance the signature gaits of the breed, the Flat Walk, Running Walk and Canter.

Having been involved with a breed of horse that has suffered decades of abuse and misunderstanding she has dedicated herself to advocating for the breed and lobbying for effective legislation in Washington DC. She is founder and president of All American Walking Horse Alliance, and the historic Walk On Washington. Jeannie rode her beautiful Tennessee Walking Horse mare on the lawn of the United States Capitol Building bringing awareness to the public for much needed change and a optimistic future for a great American breed.
