

Mr. Bruce N. Warner

OIL CITY, LA. - Services for Mr. Bruce N. Warner, 69, of Oil City, La. will be held at 2 p.m., Tuesday, September 26, in the McGuire Funeral Home Chapel in Vivian, La. Officiating will be the Rev. Frank Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oil City. Burial will be in the Lakview Memorial Cemetery in Oil City.

Mr. Warner died Sunday, September 24, 1989 at the North Caddo Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness. A resident of Oil City since 1944 and a native of Roane, Texas, Mr. Warner was a retired pumper for Tipco. He was a member of Trees Baptist Church and a U.S. Army veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Lela Owen Warner of Oil City; three sons, Ted Warner of Shreveport, Bruce Warner, Jr., of Oil City and John Warner of Vivian, La.; two daughters, Darlene Morris of Mooringsport, La. and Clara Jean Warner of Oil City; two sisters, Elsie Mae Brewer of Arlington, Texas and Nadine Keller of Duncanville, Texas; four brothers, Cecil Warner, Wilson Warner and J.R. Warner, all of Corsicana, Texas and Vergil Warner of California; eleven grandchildren.

116 CB413