“Word become Flesh”

The image of Mary greeting Elizabeth is filled with meaning for us as we begin our celebration of the feast of Christmas. On the surface, it is the meeting of two cousins - just a friendly visit. But these two women have been favored by the Lord and filled with unexpected new life. It is the child in Elizabeth's womb who leaps at the approach of Mary carrying the soon-to-born Messiah. God uses this simple family visit to publicly announce, for the first time, the beginning of Salvation History.

In all of these life-circumstances, the presence of God is hidden. We need to see with the eyes of faith. We need to understand that our God continues to visit us, to announce good news to us in unexpected ways. We want to be able to leap for Joy because we know that He is near us, within us. Like Mary, we need to trust that His promises to us will be fulfilled.

The simple family visit of Mary and Elizabeth is such a powerful and intimate reminder that if we can believe, we are never alone. Once we accept the miracle of God-made-man, then every facet of human life takes on a new dimension - a Jesus-dimension. Everything is touched by His spirit of love, of peace, of hope.

The Word became flesh and all flesh is transformed. God is as near as our very breath, within us, around us. Let us, too, leap for joy.
