

Clarence Earl Shetler

1904 - 1977

Clarence E. Shetler, died of cancer in the Antelope Valley Medical Center, Tuesday, May 31, after an illness of two months. He was 72 and resided at his ranch in Llano, California.

Mr. Shetler was a native of Centralia, Mo., born August 25, 1904 and February 15, 1928, he married Mary Frances Donahue, who survives him.

They came to the Antelope Valley in 1943, settling in the Llano area where they owned and operated a cattle and hay ranch since that time.

In addition to his wife, Mary of Llano, also surviving are a son, Clarence E. (Sonny) Shetler, Jr., of Llano; two daughters, Margaret Thomas of Arcadia and Geraldine L. Moran of Lacombe, Ore.; three brothers, Marion, George and Jacob Shetler of California; three sisters, Lydia Albrecht, Katie Albrecht of Pigeon and Anna Marie Steckley of Harrisonburg, Va.; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren.