

ROCKBRIDGE PIECEWORKERS QUILD GUILD MONTHLY MEETING

April 13, 2019

PRESENT: Carol Schoner, President
Hope Bird, Vice President
Susan Greene, Treasurer
Margo Carpenter, Secretary
Sharon E. Angle, Immediate Past President

The meeting was called to order at 9:30 a.m.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Jan Lowry moved that the minutes of March 9, 2019 be approved as presented. Sharon Angle seconded the motion and the motion carried.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Treasurer, Susan Greene, reported that the current balance is $4,517.50. The room rental check has been cut. The web page fee isn't due until August 2019. The bill will be sent to Deborah Lane.

MEMBERSHIP

Kerry Vansant reported that we have 50 members and that 27 were present at the meeting.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Deborah Lane reminded members about the June 2019 auction, "Slash Your Stash".
June – Guild auction "Slash Your Stash". Please make your donations "marketable" by presenting your donations in an orderly, beautiful way. The donor who is most creative in doing this will receive a $50 cash prize. Please bring your donations the day of the auction with a list of your donation's contents and a suggested starting bid.

Panel-palooza quilts were again admired with the last boarded attached. The quilts were handed out to volunteers for sandwiching, quilting and binding. The completed quilts should be brought to the June meeting.

RETREAT

Jan Hammer, standing in for chair Teri Brasz, announced that there are 22 attendees registered. There is room for 25. Please see the March minutes (available at RPQG.org) for the supply list. Irons and a cutting station will be provided. Power strips are needed if you are able to loan one.

There will be an ugly button contest with the winner receiving a nice prize. There are a lot of games, goodies and fun planned.

If you have any questions, please contact Teri at: vasnow@aol.com

QUILT SHOW

Carol Schoner said that the committee needs to meet to update the 2019 entry forms.

LIBRARY

Elizabeth Locher announced that the library is complete! Elizabeth compiled new catalogs of books by author and books by title. The catalogs will be available at RPQC.org for your convenience.

WEBSITE

Hope Bird is beginning to learn how to update our website with the goal that she will take over the webmistress duties. If you have any information that needs to be loaded to RPQC.org, please contact Hope at mybirdcrew@gmail.com or Margo Carpenter at margocarpenter@verizon.net.

SUNSHINE

A card was sent in March to Sandy Davis.

COMFORT QUILTS

May 8, 2019, is the next Habitat dedication. Jan Lowry is offering her quilt "There's No Place Like Home".

HAPPY BUCKS

Rose Watts opened a clothes closet at First Baptist Church on Main Street! (Please contact her at rcakes61@yahoo.com if you need further information.

Mary Spear's daughter was awarded Paramedic of The Year!

Brenda Stonesifer and her daughter are in good health after a tough few months!

Sue LaRue's house is for sale! And it's clean!

HOSTESSES

April's hostesses were: Melou Piegari and Sally Carter

No hostesses are needed for May because of the retreat.

OLD BUSINESS

The President asked for a volunteer to write the monthly newsletter. Member's agreed that the informal email she has been sending is sufficient.

NEW BUSINESS

Upon a motion made by Hope Bird and properly seconded by Jan Lowry, the RPQG Policies were reaffirmed for 2019.

The meeting was adjourned with refreshments and Show and Tell to follow.

Respectively Submitted, Margo Carpenter for

APPROVED: _____