

Production Supervisor Trainee

Role Summary:The Production Supervisor Trainee will learn the fiber production system from the ground up, working closely with the Production Manager and the Process Engineering team to become an effective supervisor and maintain highly efficient operating conditions.

Responsibilities:

- Oversee the daily manufacturing operations of the fiber production department
- Manage a production team ensuring positive cooperation and high efficiency
- Responsible for meeting production quantity and quality goals
- Maintain a safe work environment and proactively avoid safety incidents
- Oversee proper machine operation and perform basic system troubleshooting

Qualifications:

- Excellent spoken and written communication ability
- High aptitude for learning new skills and ways of thinking
- 4-year university degree in an engineering or technical field
- Team management experience

Desired Characteristics:

- Positive and proactive team member with a get-the-job-done mentality
- Ability to accurately complete tasks on time and under pressure
- High level of accountability and responsibility
- Manufacturing experience a plus