This Was SLSSA's #1 Fan. He went by The Name Of Sonny Lakes. He Was In The Federal Witness Protection Program. But, His Identity Was Revealed In A Larry Wolfe Splash Interview. We Have Not Seen Sonny Since The Article. Larry Wolfe Only Mumbles When Queried About Sonny's Disappearance.

This Appears To Be A Great Play By Ken Ponzio Who Believes He Is In The Process Of Tagging Out Dick Bleich. Only Problem Is Ken Is Tagging Him With His Glove While He Holds The Ball In His Other Hand. Only At The Field Of Dreams!

John Seigla Is So Dedicated To Senior Softball That He Actually Comes To The Field When No One Is There And Practices Leading Off The Base...

... However, He Happens To Be There At The Same Time As His Nap Time.

John Also Uses A Unique Method To Get Ready For A Game. He Throws Himself On A Sidewalk. Says It Wakes His Body Up.

Ken Ponzio (Goombah) Begins His Day At Third With All of His Nerves Firing In Anticipation of Hot Shots Coming His Way!

The Action Picks Up Early As He Participates In Throwing The Ball Around The Infield.

Goombah keeps his focus by ignoring Base Runner Dave Martin Who Complains About His Butt Itching.

Goombah Wonders Where He Should Throw The Ball If It Is Hit To Him. Or Maybe He's Wondering About Supper.

Adjusting A Hat Is One Of The More Important Things That Third Basemen Do. It Takes Many Adjustments Just To Get Through 1 Game.

One Of The Many Duties Is Developing Strategies On How To Field The Ball. Here Goombah Covers One Eye To See If He Might Make A Better Play Using Only The Other Eye.

Another Necessary Hat Adjustment. You Can't Have Too Many Of Them!

Turning Your Back On The Pitcher To Holler At An Outfielder That Just Called You A Name Is Part Of The Duties At The Hot Corner.

Still Focused On The Game Goombah
Wonders How The Batter Got To Second
While He Was Calling The Outfielder A Name.

And Finally, Be Sure To Keep Your Protective Equipment In The Right Place So You Can Play Another Day. Thanks Goombah!
