PRESS RELEASE

DATE OF RELEASE: Jan. 21, 2020
INCIDENT #: 20-00107
SUBJECT: Damage to Snowmobile signs
AUTHORIZED BY: Sheriff Kevin Bygd

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On Jan 19, 2020 the Dunn County Sheriff's Office received a report of criminal damage to signs along the snowmobile corridors of 20 and 33 in the Townships of Spring Brook and Rock Creek.

A reward was offered by local snowmobile clubs and local businesses and tips from the public were generated on Jan 20.

The Dunn County Sheriff's Office worked with the WI Department of Natural Resources Wardens on a joint investigation. Two males were identified as being responsible for the damage and have admitted to their involvement. There were more than 70 signs damaged for an estimated damage amount of $2000.

The Dunn County Sheriff's Department will be requesting formal criminal charges from the Dunn County District Attorney's Office.

The signs have been repaired by the Elk Lake Blizzard and Brunswick Beavers snowmobile clubs.
